SPIRIT MELODIES.

BY NARCISSA LEWIS JENKINSON.

A gentle spirit sweetly singeth,
Singeth sweetly unto me,
And a weary way it wingeth
From its dreamy home, and bringeth
Wild and witching melody,
Of the stars that faintly glimmer,
And the moon's so chilly shimmer,
Waxing brighter, waning dimmer,
Lessening, slow and silently.
As the clouded eye of sorrow
That a fading light doth borrow
From the hope of each to-morrow,
Dimmeth as the vision flies:
But I read that eye faint gleaming,
And the meek and chastened seeming,
And that mild glance softly beaming,
As it brightens, ere it dies;
And I know that soul is turning,
With a wild and rapturous yearning
To a longed-for Paradise.

And this spirit, too, is telling
Of the sea wave madly swelling
In its dark and fearful pride,
Of the pure cool fountain welling
Deep with n the mountain's side:
And 'tis but a faint revealing
Of the tide of bittered feeling
Swelling in its ebb and flow—
Of a faith all buoyant stealing
Upward with a freshened glow.
And the moistened eye may glisten,
As these glorious songs we listen
Of the far off mysteries,
But within we hear the thrilling
That has waked the echo, filling
Earth with grandest symphonies.

And the star that faintly glimmers,
And the moon that chilly shimmers,
And the light, and tuneful air,
And the welling in the mountain,
And the ever flowing fountain
Have a mystic marvel there.
But a deeper fountain hidden
In the secret soul, unbidden
Gushes in a thousand springs,
And a light is brighter growing
Than the distant starry glowing,
And a softer music flowing
From the heart's all trembling strings.

Extracts from the Life of Jefferson.

BY HENRY S. RANDALL, L. L. D.

Mr. Jefferson as a lover.

With Mr. Jefferson, the lover succeeded the school boy in the due and time honored order, as laid down by the "melancholy Jaques."—The only record of this affair is to be found in a series of letters addressed by him to his friend Page, commencing immediately after he left college, and extending, at intervals through the two succeeding years. These are to be found at length in Professor Tucker's life of him, and in the Congress edition of his correspondence.—They possess some interest, perhaps, in relation to their subject matter, but most, as the earliest specimen of their author's epistolary writing which have been preserved. Though they displayed something of that easy command of language—that "running pen" for which he was afterwards so celebrated, they exhibit no peculiar grace of style, or maturity or thought Perhaps, however, these would scarcely be expected in the careless, offhand effusions of boyish intimacy. It causes assmile to see the future statesman "sighing like a furnace" in a first love; concealing after the approved fashion of student life, the name of his mistress under awkward Latin puns, and Greek anagrams, to bury a secret which the world, of course, was supposed to have a vast interest in discovering; delightfully describing happy dances with his "Belinda" in the Apollo (that room of the Raleigh tavarn where we shall soon find him acting so different a part:) vowing the customary despairing vow, that "if Belinda will not accept his service, it never shall be offered to another;" and so on to the end of the chapter in the well beaten track of immemorial prescription. The object of his attachment was a Miss Rebecca Burwell, (called Belinda as a pet-name or by way of concealment,) whom tradition speaks of as more distinguished for beauty than cleverness.

Mr. Jefferson's proposals seem to have been clogged with the condition that he must be absent for two or three years in foreign travel before marriage. Whether for this, or because her preferences lay in a different direction, Miss Burwell somewhat apruptly married another man, in 1764.

Mr. Jefferson was generally, however, rather a favorite with the other sex, and not without reason. His appearance was engaging. His face, though angular, and far from beautiful beamed with intelligence, with benevolence, and with the cheerful vivacity of a happy hopeful spirit. His complexion was ruddy and delicate. ly fair; his red sh chestnut hair luxuriant and silken. His full, deep-set eyes, rather light in color, and inclining most to a blue or brown, according to the light in which they are viewed, were peculiarly expressive, and mirrored as the clear lake mirrors the cloud, every motion which was passing through his mind. He stood six feet two and a half inches in height, and though very slim, his form was erect and sinewy, and his movements displayed elasticity and vigor. He was an expert musician, a fine dancer, a dashing rider, and there was no manly exercise in which he could not play well his part. His manners were unusually graceful, but simple and cordial. His conversation already possessed no considerable share of that charm which, in after years, was so much extolled by friends, and to which enemies attributed so seductive an influence in moulding the young and the wavering to his political views. There was a frankness, earnestness and cordiality in its tone—a deed sympathy with humanity—a confidence in man and a sanguine hopefulness in his destiny—which irresistibly won upon the feelings not only of the ordinary hearer, but of those grave men whose commerce with the world had perhaps let them to form less glowing estimates of it—of such men as the scholar-like Small, the sagacious Wythe, the courtly and gifted Faquier Mr. Jefferson's temper was gentle, kind and forgiving. If it naturally had any thing of that warmth which is the usual concomitant of effections and sympathies so ardent, it had been subjugated by habitual control. Yet, under its even placidity there was not wanting those indications of calm self-reliance and courage which all instinctively recognize and respect There is not an instance on record of his having been engaged in a personal rencontre, or his having suffered a personal indignity. Possessing the accomplishments, he avoided the vices of the young Virginia gentry of the day, and a class of habits which, if not vices themselves, were too often made the preludes to them. He never gambled.—To avoid importunities to games which were generally accompanied with betting, he never learned to distinguish one card from anotner; he was moderate in the enjoyments of the table; to strong drinks he had an averson which rarely yielded to any circumstances. His mouth was unpoluted by oaths or tobacco! Though he speaks of enjoying "the victory of a favorite horse," and the "death of the fox," he never put but one horse in training to run, never run but a single race, and he very rarely joined in the pleasant excitement—he knew it to be too pleasant for the aspiring student—of the chase. With such qualities of mind and character, with the favor of powerful friends, and even of viceroyalty, to urge hime onward, Mr. Jefferson was not a young man to be lightly regarded by the young or old of either sex.

He became of age in 1761.

MR. JEFFERSON'S HORSEMANSHIP AND HORSES.

[This appears as a note to the third sentence from the last of the proceeding extract, but we prefer to give in the same form with our other extracts.]

No anticipating a particular recurrence to this topic, a few particulars of interest to those

"Whose words is snaffle, spur, and spear,',

may here be presented.

Nothwithstanding Mr. Jefferson was no turfman, he ever retained the partiality of a Virginian for this sport, and rarely lost a convenient opportunity, even when President, of witnessing a promising race. His market fondness forhorses commencenced and ended only with his life. His preference was for the Virginia race-horse; he did not ride, and was scarcely willing to drive any other. Two or three pages of his farm book are devoted to the pedigrees of those purchased, or selected from his breeding stock, for his own use. He usually kept several fine brood-mares: and we shall find Bornwallis, in his predatory excursions in Virginia, carrying away the serviceable ones, and cutting the throats of the others, and of all the colts.

Mr. Jefferson was very particular in the care of his horses, and when young, was fastidious in the last degree in regard to their appearance. When his riding horse was led out, if his coat shone not a faultlessy as a mirror, he rubbed it with a white pocket handkerchief, and if this was soiled, the groom was condemned and admonished to be more particular in future! As saddle horses, he preferred fleet, high mettled animals, however tameless their temper. Col. Thomas Jefferson Randolph, in a letter to us, says: "A bold and fearless rider, you saw at a glance from his easy and confident seat, that he was master of his horse—which was usually the fine blood horse of Virginia. The only impatience of temper he ever exhibited, was with his horse, which he subdued to his will by a fearless application of the whip on the slightest manifestation of rostiveness. He retained to the last his fondness for riding on horseback; he rode within three weeks of his death, when from disease debility and age, he mounted with difficulty. He rode with confidence, and never permitted a servant to accompany him. He was fond of solitary rides and musing, and said that the presence of a servant annoyed him.

This aversion to the common Virginia custom of being followed by a servant, was very strong. His right wrist was dislocated in France, and his left one, many years afterwards, by a fall on his terrace, and they never so far recovered as to become strong and firm. As he persisted in riding high-mettled-horses, his daughter, Mrs. Randolph, often besought him to allow a servant to accompany him, but without avail On one occasion, in attempting to cross Moore's creek, near its confluence with the Rivanna, by a ford not recently used, his horse in descending the steep bank stuck fast in a newly formed bar of mud, and Mr. Jefferson was thrown over his head into the stream.—With his crippled arms he found it difficult to preserve himself from drowning. Mrs. Randolph now added tears to entreaties, but the reply was "that he would give up his rides altogether, if it was necessary for her comfort, but he would not be followed by a servant." He dispensed with his rule only on distant journeys.

Until after mid-life, he rarely drew rein for broken ground, and when in haste, unhesitatingly dashed through the Rivanna, even when the usually quiet stream was swollen into a wide and rapid river by rains. Instances of his fearless horsemanship, and anecdotes of his superb horses—"The General," "Caractatus," "Tarquin," "Diomend," "Arcturus," "Jacobin," "Celer," "Eagle," etc.,—are yet rife in family tradition and reccollection. The fleet, fiery Eagle, was his last one, and was ridden by him almost daily until "within three weeks of his death," though be often required assistance to mount him from a terrace nearly on a level with the horse's back. Yet this animal was so spirited, that a young kinsman of Mr. Jefferson's, who rode with a company to meet Lafayette at his last visit to Monticello, found it necessary to quit the cavalcade, the horse became so ungovernably excited by the noise and crowd. On one occasion, when Mr. Jefferson was old and decrepit—long after the last accident to his wrists—a messenger arrived to inform him that a grandson had met with a disaster, and lay seriously injured at Charlottesville. The weather was dark and lowering, night was setting in, and he was more than usually feeble. He directed Eagle to be brought to the door. His family entreated him not to set out at such a time; but his order was repeated in a tone which brooked no further opposition. The moment he was in the saddle, he struck the noble horse, which bounded forward at full run. His family held breaths with suspense, expecting he would draw a bridle at the "notch," where the mountain descends abruptly. But the clatter of hoof from the rocky passes showed them that the fearful race was continued. He swept by the returning messenger like an arrow, and reached Charlottesville in a time that, over such ground, would have appalled the boldest young horseman in Virginia.

On a beautiful day in the latter part of February, (the opening of the Virginia spring,) for 1851, the author rode up to Monticello, having for his cicerone an old manumitted slave, who had for forty-five years belonged to Mr. Jefferson. Wormley had been first a door-yard servant, and subsequently a gardener. He had dug the grave of his master and others of his household, and now was the oldest living chronicler of the history of Monticello. Like most of his color, he had a strong attachment for horses.—After a few minutes' inquiries, his taciturnity gave way to animation of his favorite theme. He could distinctly remember, and described the points, height, color, pace, temper, &c., of every horse as far back as Arcturus, which Mr. Jefferson brought from Washington. A crag of serpentine jutting into the narrow road; built high on the sides of a steep ravine, was selected by the fiery stranger horse as a shying butt—as if conscious that it was dangerous for this rider to administer correction on such a spot. Mr. Jefferson tolerated this once or twice, but on its being repeated, punished the rearing and plunging animal with whip and spur until he was glad to put his fore feet on the rock and stand still. Higher up, Wormley pointed out the path, or the rongh untrodden course, on the side of Carters' Mountain, where Mr. Jefferson rode away when a detachment of Tarleton's dragoons were sent to capture him, "but not till the red coats were climbing the mountains." An inspection of the deserted and dilapidated stables, called forth other incidents; and finally we returned so as to pass Moor's creek at the ford, where Mr. Jefferson was thrown over his horse's head into stream, as already mentioned. According to Wormley's recollections, he was saved by his horse, which extricating itself from the mud, purposely or by accident, approached so near to his master that he seized the reins and was drawn to the shore. We shall have more to do with Wormley's recollections, on other topics, hereafter.

Population of New York city and suburbs within a radius of twelve miles, in 1840, 399,021; in 1850, 789,071; in 1854, 1,020,989.

White Labor vs. Negro Labor.

"Irish and Negro Row.—There was a protracted and somewhat bloody fight yesterday afternoon, on the dock, at the foot of Washington street, between some negroes and Irishmen The parties were about equal in point of numbers when the affair began, but the Irish soon colected in great force, and considering it a free fight, counted themselves in, and poor cuffee had not a ghost of a chance Three of the negroes were badly beaten; one of them to such an extent that it was supposed he must die; but he is better this morning, and will probable recover. Some six or eight of the combatants, black and white were before Justice Drullard this morning, with a large number of witnesses to complicate the investigation. It seems to have been a sort of spontaneous outbreak, without any other cause than the mutnal jealousy and dislike subsisting between the Celtish and Africans races. Before the police were able to suppress the row, somthing like a thousand persons had collected, besides those directly engaged in the affray."—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, 5th inst.

The foregoing is only one of the thousand similar instances which have taken place, and the ten thousand which must inevitably occur, arising from the course of abolitionists and freesoilers—Wherever free negroes become at all numerous, they come in direct rivalry with white labor.—The white freemen of the north find themselves compelled to enter into rivalry with negro labor in order to get bread for their families. They find the freesoiler and abolitionist snubbing them, and giving preference to negroes. Yes, the freesoilers and abolitionists give negroes a preference over white men; these very white men, upon whose valor they rely forsafety for themselves and their property in time of war and danger, while the negros is fattening in security at home. The negro is satisfied to live in filth, and with enough to keep soul and body together, and the white man is commpelled to take the same wages or be turned off. Wherever the negroes are numerous enough, this will always be the case, and the abolitionists and freesoilers give them a preference. No wonder that every workingman's blood boils at this tnings; and the time will come when they may turn their indignations from the interfering, insolent negro to those who make them so. and who forgot the rights of the white workingman. There are in Boston some twenty thousand Irish, who already feel chafed at the insolence and interference of negroes, and the preference shown them by freesoilers and abolitionists. It may be dangerous for these people long to tamper with the patience of their Irish fellow-citizens and native workingmen.

These abolitionists declare their perfect willingness that as many free negroes as choose may go to Nebraska. Now, it is very certain that every free negro who goes there will be all the time seeking employment which belongs to the white man; seeking the very jobs the white laborer seeks, while no slave would be permitted to do so, but quietly working on his master's farm, would be in the way of no white man.

Sooner or later, a fearful issue will be made between the working whites and the free negroes. As they become numerouse, by emancipation or running away from the south, they will be pitted against the white man by the freesoilers and abolitionists, as they now are to a great extent.

Let the laboring white man of the country bear in mind the object of the freesoilers and the abolitionists to build up a free negrocracy, to compel the white labor to submit to the extortion of their freesoil and abolition employers. Let them mark well every man who gives preference to a negro over a white man, and they will soon be enabled to see who are their friends and the object of this preference.

It is enough to rouse to indignation the independent white citizen to see an acrid, bitter abolitionist turn him of from work or refuse it, and give it to some rank-odored negro. But when war comes, the negro is kept at home in fine employment, and the rejected white laborer is expected forth and risk his life to secure the property of the cold-blooded abolitionist and freesoiler, who refused him work to give a negro the preference.

Let the laboring men bear in mind that the great object of these men is to get up a class of negro laborers by which to injure white American laborers, citizens, soldiers, and jurymen.

This subject will before long command general attention, and of necessity the whole laboring class the north will be banded together against there interests and their rights.

Emigration to the New Territories.

The Abolitionists and Whigs are now seeking to make capital out of pretended efforts to encourage and facilitate emigration from the free States to Kansas and Nebraska, in order to meet and outvote the slaveholders who may locate there.—They will find few slaveholders there, and have no rivalry to overcome. The South has no design to enter the contest for the control of those regions. But there will be successful, and that the Abolitionists will now show their zeal for the cause of free territory by going themselves, in large numbers. Let them now show a disposition to labor, and endure the hardships of a frontier and pioneer life, for the sake of their cause, instead of remainig in the old States to preach, and agitate, and stir up riot and murder and treason. A fair field is open before them. If they have any fears that slavery will gain footing in Kansas, why not go there themselves in sufficient numbers to prevent it. They can well be spared from the older communites; and a little disposition to labor, as well as to agitate, is necessary to prove their sincerity. We belive, however, that the event will prove that the Abolitionis of the North and East have no intention to put "their own hands to the plough." Like Wendell Phillips and Theodore barker, they will incite others to exertions, and then provide for their own safety and comfort at home. Those two valorous Boston agitators made speeches to a crowd that resulted in riot and the murderer of a citizen, and, instead of joining in the mob, they fled like cowards to their comfortable homes, and called on the Mayor to protect them and their property from threatened vegeance. And so it will be in regard to this emigration scheme.—They will call lustily to others to go to the new territories, and remain in comfort at home themselves. We want to see Abolitionist going to Kansas in great numbers. We don't want slavery established there, or anywhere else. We don't like the institution. So, turn out Abolitionist. There is a wide field for you in the western wilds; and if you are sincere in your professions you will help to occupy it, and prevent the extension of slavery.

It is a humbug. It is political capital they desire to make, and not free States.—Pittsburgh Post.

A New and Beautiful Tree in Oregon.—A Mr. Brooks, writing from Olympia, Oregon, says:

"A strange and beautiful tree has lately been found here, which is from one to seven feet high, with a leaf resembling that of the pear, and the trunk and branches those of the orange. The upper side of the leaf is coated with gum, of the consistence of oil, and it is highly fragrant, the odor resembling that of bergamot ripe fruit. It will be highly ornamental and a desirable addition to our gardens, and is an evergreen."

☞ A country youth who had returned from the city, was asked by his anxious father if he had been guarded in his conduct while there.—"Oh, yes!" was the reply, "I was guarded by two policemen part of the time."

Exciting Balloon Ascension

There was a great gathering, June 8th. at the Crystal Palace to see the grant belloon ascension of Mr. Wise, the veteran American Æronaut.—The inflation of the balloon took place in the Palace enclosure, outside the edifice, and was watched with much interest by the multitude.—Punctually at the hour—Barnum is invariably punctual—the ropes were loosed, and Mr. Wise soared away toward the place of clouds. A brisk western breeze was blowing, and he was borne rapidly toward the east. The remainder of his adventures are given in his own words. It will be seen that he had a narrow escape; but he is accustomed to such perils:

I made my one hundred and sixty-third ascension yesterday, from the court yard of the Crystal Palace, at 3½ o'clock. The day was squally, and it was necessary to start with a strong ascending force, so as to overcome the obstacles surrounding me. These created a sensation, when I gave the word "let her go," as thought I had been projected by the force of gunpowder. In a few minutes I entered the clouds. The ballon was still swaying to and fro like a furious elephant. All around me there appeared nothing but a deep twilihgt, of an ashy hue. In another moment the sun faintly showed its disc through the milky vapor. Reflecting that as I entered the clouds the ocean was lashing the long-bound shore with its angry billows, this time I had the valved open, but not until I had emerged out of the clouds above did I restrain the upward bounds of the wild ærial ship. Above I saw over a patch of clouds the surf of the ocean dashing its spray into the clouds as it were. At last the ascending power was overcome, and the bills that I was throwing overboard kept my company in the descent. When I got below the clouds again I saw Flushing a little eastward: The decent now became rapid, and the strong wind below admonished me of a rough landing. In another moment my grapple took effect. The jar broke some of the rigging, the grappled ripped up the sod, and the ballon bounded several hundred yards. Next the car was dashed forcibly into a ravine, and bolded me out. I held on to the outside. The ballas being also thrown out, gave the ballon increased power. She rose the lenght of the rope, while I was hanging fast to the car. In a moment the grapple again ripped up the sod, and, seeing my predicament, that of being hauled up, with a moral certainty that I could not secur myself to the car long, I made the tearful plunge of at least 40 feet into the salt meadow, knoking out one of my teeth and slightly bruising my jaw. The balloon dashed off, keeping the direction of the island.

Mr. Wise returned to the Palace in due season. The last heard from the baloon was by way of telegraph, saying that it was seen at 4½, P. M., off Bridgeport, scudding rapidly eastward. Of course, all who saw it believed Mr. Wise to be in it, and fears were expessed that he would be lost in the Sound, or carried out to the ocean.

The Chinese in California.

The influx of Chinese in California has become so large, and the habits of the people are so clannish and different from the other inhabitants, that the question is very seriously discussed, what shall be done with such people. Three thousand arrived at San Francisco on their way. The are not like the European emigrants who assimilate in a few years with our own population, and whose manner, religion, habits, and modes of thought are nearly identical. The Chinese differ in everything, language, customs, religion, color, without a single connecting link, except the love of gold to bind them in social union with the rest of the population. The women who accompany the Chinese are described as the vilest and lowest of their sex. The first of English the learn is ribaldry and profanity, and they are most offensive in their publicity. An intelligent correspondent, writing to the Boston Post, says unless some means are taken to slay this emigration in a few years there will be in that State a perfect system of aristocracy; a white population ruling the state: with an under-caste of Mongols, deprived of political rights, yet outnumbering their rulers. If the introduction of an inferior and dissimilar race among our own population present such difficulties in California at the present time, how much greater will be the mischief when we come to take into the Union and to citizenship upon an equality with native born citizens one half of Mexico with its best inhabitants but semi-civilized, and its peons scarcely equal to the African slaves in the Spaniards of Cuba not much higher than the Mexican in civilization, and the Sandwich Islander the lowest in the scale. This is a "foreign infusion" from which nothing but mischief and confusion can be expected, and instead of precipitating the evil upon us our rules should endeavor to guard us against it. The harmony of our internal relations requires that some affinities of race, some unity of opinion, some common customs, some habits of self government shall previously exist as a preparatory step to such universal citizenship.

Woman Lawyers.—The New Bedford Mercury after chronicling the fact that one of the female spouters in the late Woman's Rights Covention, said she was studying law, with a view to practice it, says, quite humorously:

"We wish this new Portia all possible success, though we cannot help thinking she would do better with a little 'un than Lyttleton with a cap than a capias. All women like a declaration, though most prefer another kind to that in a writ. Still our Blackstone in skirts may succeed wonderfully well in courting, and win a silk gown in advance of all her male competitors. The only injustice is that her rhetoric may be heightened and renered more hervenly by a pretty countenance, the present race of lawyers being by no means beautiful as to the phiz. In that case as Sappho filched the laurels from Pindar, not by the force of her poetry, but by the fairness of her face, so 'Squire Nancy or Polly may carry off decisions from our softhearted judges, when the law and the evidence are both on the side of som long-nosed, ill-favored special pleader in pantaloons.

Divorce Extraordinary.—A woman applied to one of our attorneys not long since, to take steps towards procuring a divorce on account of habitual drunkness and illtreatment in hea leigelord. The attorney, who is a strong temperance man, was much impressed with the story of her wrongs, and engaged to commence necessary proceedings at one. A few days ago, the fair plaintiff called again to consult about the case, and at the case, and at the close of the interview inquired how long it would be before the matter was finally consummated. The attorney replied that he sincerely commiserated her situation, and would do all he could to relieve her from it in the shortest possible time. He thought he should be able to do so against the 1st of September, at farthest. "Oh!" said she, her voice betraying the deepest emotion, "cant it be done cooner, for I'm engaged to marry another feller in July!" The attorney cauliflowered.—Lafayette Journal.

Clerical Jike.—In some churches it is customary to separate the men from the women, and on one occasion, a minister being interrupte by loud talking, stopped short, when a woman eager to vindicate her sex, exclaimed: "Your reverence, the noise is not among us."

"So much the better," answered the clergyman "it will be over the sooner."

How true it is.

The Cleveland Plaindealer under the head of "fore'gn born," has the following serious, candid and well written article:

"The progress of the "Know-Nothings" is electric. Within the past week alone, they have mounted up with a rapidity unequalled in the whole history of the political past. Every paper on our extensive exchange list, has something to say—for or against—upon the all-absoabing theme. The Whigs and Freesoilers, as a mass, are bidding for the "Know- Nothing" interest, while the Democracy are making one more kind effort to benefit the foreign born in this their hour of distress. Not a single Democratic paper, so far as we know, has attempted either to bully or buy off our adopted citizens. To bully, our party is too courteous, and to buy, too proud. Besides, we are not directly, personally interested in this issue. The Democratic party has survived through numberless crises and evenful epochs. It has lost at times, a phalanx here and a battalion there. Its whole course has been one of vicissitudes and variations; and yet, to day it is the only National Party in the land, the only one of which the observant eye can prophecy anything but utter disruption and defeat.

The democratic party might, with perfect safety, abstain from taking sides of this new question. They might say to foreigners—"This is the result of your own folly. We have told you again and again how it would be. Against our frequent advice you have persisted in building up your Irish and German clans. You have claimed to enjoy all the rights and happy privileges of American citizens, while you wrap up your sympathies and interests in your own nationality. You seem seeking to turn America into Ireland or Germany instead of lending your strength, genius, hopes and aspirations to swell the glory of the American name. Your very policy of isolation has provoked the counter Native American movement. Now take care of yourselves.

Such would be the languaga of recrimination, but the Democracy are too generous to use it. The Democracy are now prepared, as they ever have been, to work for and with both Irish and Germans, and the representatives of any and all nations on the globe. They only wish in return, a warm and hearty co-operation—not as reluctant allies, but as Democrats all, knowing no country but America, and no ambition but its common welfare.

"Again we ask the Germans and Irish to cast carefully about them—to inquire, 1st, what this Native American movement is? 2d, How long they—only one-fifth of the population—can hold out against it? 3d, What is their best course in this dilemma?

Bank Notes Stolen.—The Bank of Tennes see, as we learn from the Nashville Banner, recently ordered from its engraver a new set of bank notes of verious denominations, with red backs. The box containing these notes was received a few days ago, but none of them have yet been put into circulation On Monday a ten dollars bill, red back, with out signature, was presented at the counter of the Bank. It was a genuine note, but as none had been issued suspicions were aroused, and an examination of the contents of the box, which had not previously been opened at the Bank, disclosed the fact, that notes of the denomination of ten dollars, to the amount of $40,000, had been abstracted. None of the other notes were disturbed. The box came from New York, in charge of Adams & Co.'s Express, and it is thought the notes were abstracted on the steamboat between this city and Nashville. The person who presented the note at the bank, stated that he obtained the note from a negro who had purchased goods from him to the amount of $5 and received $5 in change. The appearance of the negro indicated that he was a steamboat hand. The community should be on their guard against these notes. The Bank will not issue one of the ten dollars red backs unless the whole $40,000 are recovered. Louisville Courier, 15th.

The Decline of Spain.—What a deplorable picture of the decline of Spain is that presented in the following extract from one of its own papers, the Clamor Publico, of Madrid:—

"Under the Moors the population of Spain was thirty millions; it is now fifteen millions. When Granada was conquered, in 1487, it was defended by walls flanked by 1,000 towers. The kingdom, of which it was the capital, was seventy leagues long by thirty broad, and possessed thirty-two cities of the first rank, and ninety-seven of the second. Granada, before its fall in 1487, contained 400,000 inhabitants, of whom 60,000 bore arms. It now contains but 60,000 souls, all counted. The population of the whole kingdom of Granada was three millions. Malaga, in the seventeenth century, contained 80,000 inhabitants; it now possesses only 50,000 inhabitants Medinadel Campo, in the seventeenth century contained 60.000 inhabitants, it now contains 6,000. Merida, at the same epoch, possessed 40,000 inhabitants; it now possesses only 5,000. In the sixteenth centure the diocese of Salamanca had one hundred and twenty-seven cities and villages; it now has thirteen only, Segovia, in 1725, had 5,000 families; now 2,000. Seville, in the seventeenth centure, had a population of 300,000 of which 130.000 were employed in manufactures; it now contains 97,000 souls, all told Toledo, in the fifteent century, had 200,000 inhabitants; it now has 15,000. Valence, which in year 1600, counted a population of 600,000, now hardly numbers 60,000. In 1778 there were counted 1511 abandoned villages in Spain, and the number has been increasing from that time to this."

☞ Great actions and striking occurrences, having excited a temporary admiration, often pass away and are forgotten, because they leave no lasting results, affecting the prosperity of communities. Such is frequently the fortune of the most brilliant military achievements. Of the ten thousand battles which have been fought, of all the fields fertilized by carnage; of the banners which have been bathed in blood; of the warriors who have hoped that they have risen from the field of conquest to a glory as bright and durable as the stars, how few that continue long to interest mankind! The victory of yesterday is reversed by the defeat of to-day; the star of military glory, rising like a meteor, like a meteor has fallen; disgrace and disaster hang on the heels of conquest and renown; victor and vanquished presently pass away to oblivion, and the world holds on its course with the loss only of so many lives and so much treasure.—[Daniel Webster.

New Mode of Fencing.—It is said that a gentleman residing in Widsor, Vt, has introduced into that region a method of fencing, which for cheapness or durability and efficiency, can hardly be surpassed. He procures stakes of a suitable wood, five feet in length, and steps the lower portion of them in a solution of blue vitriol—one pound of vitriol to forty of water. This renders them almost indestructible by the natural process of decay. He then drives the stakes into the ground at a distance of eight inches apart, bringing the tops into a straight line, and nailing upon them a narrow strip of board, using one nail upon each stake. Among the advantages of the fence thus made, apart from its cheapness, it is said that "cattle and sheep can't get through it, horses will not jump it, hogs will go a good distance round rather than climb over it, and a dog can't set in the shade of it."

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1854.

For Supreme Judge, 4th District,
ALVIN P. HOVEL, of Posey County.

For Secretary of State,
NEHEMIAN HAYDEN, of Rush Country.

For Treasurer of State,
ELIJAH NEWLAND, of Washington Co.

For Auditor of State,
JOHN P. DUNN, of Perry County.

For Superintendent of Public Instructions,
WM. C. LARABEE, of Putnam County.

A New Volume of the Sentinel

Will be commenced on Saturday, the 8th of July next, and we hope as many of our readers as can will continue to pay up by that time and take a new start. It will be such a novelty to some of them to settle up, that we feel quite a philanthropic desire to be instrumental in furnishing the rare delight.

We design enlarging the Sentinel so as to give our readers nearly one half more news than at present, and make it THE LARGEST PAPER IN THE STATE. The enlargement will be made as soon as we can complete the necessary arrangements and procure a NEW PRESS of corresponding dimensions.

To meet the heavy outlay we shall naturally incur in these improvements we confidently hope our friends will interest themselves in extending our circulation. There are but few who could not, if they would try, induce at least one neighbor or friend to subscribe, and we hereby appoint each subscriber to act as a committee of one for this purpose.

As a further inducement to new subscribers, we will furnish the Sentinel to CLUBS at the following reduced rates:

Five copies, and one to the person getting up the club, for $7. 50; Ten copies, and one do. for $12.50

Payment in all cases to be made in advance.

The melting of our Roller last week accounts for the delay of our paper.

Whig, Abolition, and Know Nothing Meeting.

It is perhaps known by a few that on last Saturday, a meeting composed of the above factions was held at the Court House, or, as since denominated by one of their clan, "the buzzards nest," in opposition to the Nebraska bill. Notwithstanding their flaming handbills posted up throughout the county, that there would be a grand mass convention of the people of all parties on the occasion, and that the eminent H. P. Biddle, Shuyler Colfax and others, would be in attendance and address those assembled, they were unsuccessful in their attempts to deceive the honest public. It was truly a whig, abolition, and know-nothing concern throughout. As a matter of curiosity, a few democrats convened with them until their meeting was organized, the result of which so fully developed their iniquitous designs, that they left them to their own glory. Whereupon after the report of the committee on resolutions, whose character are in direct antagonism with the letter and spirit of the Constitution of the U. S., Horace P. Biddle, alias Samuel Brenton, made a tremendous effort to show that the Bill introduced by the Hon. S. A. Douglass, Chairman of the Committee on Territories was a violation of a solemn compact, and that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was a total disregard of "national faith." Query, whether this gentleman recollects that when he was in Congress, and where he would like to be again, that this same bill in substance was introduced, and that, in his letter of May last, said that a bill for the organization of said Territory should be passed. And now, since the same has been passed, he comes out with hurling invectives against it and those who voted in favor thereof. "Consistency, thou art a jewell;" but where art thou now? Allowing us the priviledge of speaking plainly, in our opinion, a greater political demagogue and hypocrite was never found in any community, than this same Samuel Brenton. On former occasions he has lauded the dear people to the skies and proclaimed their inherent rights; but now, thinking to make a strike for Congress, he opposes the great and grand principle contained in the Bill, which provides that the people shall determine for themselves their own domestic concerns, whether in States or Territories. The motives of this gentleman are in nowise past finding out. His former course and total disregard for the common proprieties of life are yet remembered against him and will in due time be revealed.

Next, Schuyler Colfax, alias Charles Case, was introduced and consumed some time in denouncing Douglas and others who gave their support to the Bill. He would that the people should believe that these are times of great peril, and that, because of the passage of this Bill, a great outrage has been committed on the rights of the American people. What a lamentable state of of affairs, that the people should deign to regulate their own internal affairs as to them seemeth best! No, he would that the vexed question of slavery should be continued in Congress, and create sectional difficulties, even, should our cherished Union be endangered thereby. He, like all the rest of abolitionists, is pregnant with the one idea, and when the question is sought to be placed with the people, where it of right belongs, then the sad lamentation that we are to have more slave Territories, without any cogent reasoning, is heralded loud and long with the view of exciting the sympathies of the people. We regret to have to say that the action of the abolitionists on the subject of slavery has, instead of producing the amelioration of the oppressed, tended to rivet and bind closer their fetters. And now, since a territorial bill for Nebraska and Kansas has been passed, confiding in the intelligence of the people the right to govern themselves and regulate their domestic institutions, the cry is for repeal, and "ceaseless vigilance" until the same is accomplished. This is the only means left for the abolitionists to introduce into Congress again the question of slavery, and to sow their seed of corruption where its withering curse will be their condemnation forever. No, rather than have our confederacy rest in peace on this vexed question, these men would witness the dying agonies of her free insitutions. What ingratitude!

Lastly, Abby Kelly, Alias Pop-gun Smith, entertained the audience in her usual manner; that is, she delivered one of her stereotyped essays which being interspersed with poetical effusions from Shakespear, Burns, and Lord Byron, of course, had great force and was very conclusive in showing that the Nebraska Bill was a "Swindle" and outrage upon the people. This Lady has been exceedly anxious to bring herself into public notoriety during her short stay in our midst; we regret that her ambitious motives has led her astray from the path of virtue. But it is to true that an excited ambition has caused men as well as women to depart from rectitude, honor and common decency. This distinguished lady made some pretentions to Democracy on her arrival amongst us, but ascertaining the fact, that the rules and regulations of the Democratic party prohibited Mongrels and demagogues, she retracted and sought favor of the liberals and police organizations, regardless of principles whose spheres seem quite natural and congenial to her feelings and desires.

The meeting, consisting principally of heart-sickened politicians, appointed W. S. Smith, alias, Abby Kelley, Samuel Brenton, alias, H. P. Biddle, Martin Bell, Christian Parker and Charles Case, alias, Schuyler Colfax, a central Committee for the purpose of organizing Township Anti-Nebraska associations.

We admonish the people of the different townships to beware of these political renegates and disorganizers, and especially is our admonition addressed to Democrats for it is their boasted design to ensnare as many of you as possible,— Countenance them nor their operations in no respect, but leave them entirely to their own destruction and the prosecution of their unholy and unrighteous designs. Then when the evil hours shall come, they alone will be responsible.

The request made in their last resolution, that the City papers publish the proceedings of their meeting, is certainly one of the coolest presumptions we have ever known or heard of. What!! ask us to publish the proceedings of a meeting bearing a lie on their face. Nay verily, we never have and never shall we hope, be guilty of knowingly deceiving the honest masses by the publication in our columns of falshoods or evil communications.

Position of Mr. Chamberlain.

As the time is drawing near when the Democrats of this Congressional district will nominate their candidate for the next Congress, it may be proper to examine the condition Hon. E. M. Chamberlain, our present Representatives, occupies in respect to the Nebraska Bill. He, as our readers are aware, was opposed to the bill; and though he did not vote against it on its final passage, having been suddenly called home by the serious indisposition of a member of his family, he does not wish that fact to be construed into a change of his opinion on the subject. He was compelled to leave Washington before the vote was taken, but he paired off with a friend of the bill, so the result was the same as if both had remained, and voted. Had he been in Washington, he would undoubtly have voted against the bill.

His opposition to it was, however, honest and straight-forward, like all his other public acts. He was no party to any of the factions movements of the minority, tending to delay public business, and he voted against some of the motions introduced for that purpose. Though many (perhaps the greater portion) of his constituents would have preferred to see him vote for the bill, yet the purity of his motives being unquestionable, and his opposition manifested only in the most honorable manner, there is nothing in his conduct calculated to diminish the unbounded confidence with the democracy of this district has always reposed in him.

The bill having passed, and the question being settled, he bows to the decision, in accordance with the democratic rule that the majority should govern. He acquiesces in the result, and we are authorized to say, that he will strenuously oppose any attempt to renew the agitation, and give us countenance to the efforts of fanatical abolitionists and enemies of the administration seeking to repeal the bill. This being his position, we can see no impropriety in any, even the most ardent friends of the Nebraska Bill, supporting him for renomination; but on the contrary think much good would result from it, and that it would have a beneficial effect in allaying irritation, and healing any dissention that may have unhappily arisen in our ranks on this subject. If the friends of the bill acquiesce in this course, our party will present an united and unbroken front, and our success will be certain.

Of Mr. Chamberlain's fitness for the station it is unnecessary to speak. We may however be permitted to add, that no man in Washington maintains a better reputation as an able, honest faithful and industrious representative than he does. He is looked upon with respect by all—whigs, democrats, Nebraska men, and anti-Nebraska. He is an honor to his constituents and his state and in our opinion we should act wisely in renominating him.

The Know Nothings.

Two weeks ago we published their platform, that the public might read and thereby comprehend the objects they seek to accomplish. Their Society is composed of Whigs, Freesoilers, ranting Abolitionists, Spiritualits, Women's rights men, Disorganizers Demagogues, Factionits, and all the host of corrupt factions and factionists that pollute our land and desecrate the name of freedom. Failing to succeed under the aforesaid organizations in times past, or to establish for themselves that political aggrandizement or reputation which none, but men or parties of principle and integrity of purpose are deserving of, or capable of inheriting and possessing, are "fired with indignation" and in the "gaul of bitterness and the bonds of iniquity" have Sworn eternal hostility to the advancement and triumph of Democratic principles. And in order to perpetrate and effect their infernal designs, assemble behind the curtain of infamy, with their lights under a bushel, then and there to Know nothing but inveterate condemnation of popular Sovereignty, Foreiguers and Catholics. Shameful that any set of men that have breathed the air of American freedom and enjoyed the blessings of her Institutions, should thus secretly and wilfully attempt to weaken or destroy her pillars.

They talk about American Slavery and its evil consequences, and would that the world should know their heart renderings and soul stirring sympathies: and yet, when the poor foreigners who have been subjected to the power of Kings and Potentates come to the "land of the free" and the "Home of the brave," rather than greet them a happy welcome to our shores, they propose to meet them with "bloody hands" and laws of disfranchisement. Yes they would preclude from the right of citizenship the very individuals who cultivate the refused territory of our land and in a few years make the waste places, healthy, beautiful, and lovely habitations; and the very persons, too, who construct the internal improvements that bring us in almost immediate proximity with the remotest corners of the Earth!— Yes, disfranchise the honest and noble foreigners who assist in supporting our Government, and aid in sustaining her Institutions in times of peace, as well as when attacked by invading foes! Yes, this band of pirates would prevent them from the exercise of political, social, and religious priviledges, and, at the same time, make them subservient and ameniable to all her laws. They deny the poor foreigners the rights they claim for themselves. This is what they term consistency and the standard of human excellence in their hide and go seek operations. These things in the Shape of human beings, who Know nothing now, will Know something when the result of the approaching elections are known. The "poor ignorant and degraded foreigners" as they call them, will awaken them from their stupidity to a just sense of propriety when they speak at the Ballot Boxes.

Our neighbor of the "Times" seems disposed to take exceptions to the remark in our former article on this subject, that 'no man can be recognized as a Democrat who belongs to the Society" of Know Nothings. Now we repeat without hesitation that no Democrat can consistently, or will so degrade himself as to enter into any Secret conclave for the purpose of political action. And we venture a further remark; that no man of honest purpose, having the "stability of our "times" at heart, can with justice and propriety, or will connect himself with any such a disloyal Society.

Deplorable indeed that any man, or any set of men should be so steeped in political sin as to secretly plot the destruction of principles whereon rest the perpetuity of Americans Institutions and American Freedom. Pirates persist on in your nefarious schemes if you will, and ere long you will have done enough to cause your Ancient political-Fathers to burst assunder the cemeter of their tombes and rise up among you not to bless you but to curse you with a traitors lot and a traitors name.

Hear us!—For several weeks past we have been receiving letters containing advertisements of Lotteries, Gift Concerts, &c., with requests to insert them in our Paper, and as our compensation, to take tickets in said schemes.

Now, we wish it expressly understood that we have no sympathy for "gouges" or "gougers," and when we have so far lost our sense of duty to our patrons as to burden our colums with such trash and deceiving inducements, we trust that there will be some other avocation that will be worthy our attention and practice. We are aware of the ingenuity of such men as are engaged in the Lottery and Gift schemes throughout many portions of our country. We know too that, by their flattery, they have filled their coffers with the hard earnings of the welter ing poor. We know too that many families of respectability have come to want in consequence of the fraud and deceptions practiced upon them by these men who are to indolent to gain an honest lively-hood by the sweat of their brow. It is high time that the public would disregard their glowing promises which are seldom if ever fulfilled, discountenance their every effort, and thereby drive them to habits of industry and honesty of purpose. We take pleasure in giving advertisements insertion in our paper when they are designed for the public good or the advancement of proper motives. But none others will receive our consideration.

The fourth of July.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Germans of Allen County celebrated the 78th Anniversary of American Independence in a truly patriotic manner. We were much gratified to see so many noble spirits engage and participate in the commemoration of that glorious day that gave us political, civil, and religions liberty; and we trust that the virtues and excellencies thereof will ever prove a sufficient inducement for the faithful observance of that great day throughout all generations. The following persons acted as officers of the day: President, Henry Rudisill; Vice President, Dr. C. Schmitz; Marshals, Maj. L. Wolkie, Wm. Borger, H. Drover, J. Trentman, F. Nirdlinger, Mr. Leichtenheim, Mr Redelsheimer, H. Strong, F. Rug, G. Ritzman, F. Wolkie, F. Mayer, J. Schukman, J. Mayer, J. Greabel, H. Geiger, and C. Tresselt.

Committee of arrangement, S. Odendahl, H. R. Schwegman, C. Bonnett, Mr. Cromroy, B. Trentman, C. Tresselt, W. Wingenrode, F. Graffe, C. Muhler, H. Orff, H Strong, and C. Nill.

When assembled in Ewing's Grove, the Declaration of Independence was read by H. Odendahl, Oration in German delivered by Mr. Cromroy, and in English by H. J. Rudisill. These gentleman did credid to themselves and great honor to the country which we all cherish with pride, and are willing to defend under any and all circumstances from invasion. The memory of those who sacrificed their lives on the Altar of liberty for our peaceful enjoyment, will, we hope, ever be treasured in our minds, and their virtues ever commemorated.

Pic-Nic.

On the Fourth a party of our citizens convened in a Grove about six miles from the City, where they were addressed in an appropriate manner by Mr. Merriman Esq., after which they partook of refreshments gotten up by the dear Ladies, who do all things well and just to the tastes of the Gentlemen. As far as we are advised, they had a merry good time.

Our thanks are due Hon. E. M. CHAMBERLAIN, for parts 1st, 2d and 3d of the President's Messages and accompanying Documents.

The warm Weather.—For several days past, the rays of the sun have had a prostrating effect upon the physical System, and the force and effect thereof are in no degree diminished at this time. The months of July and August are usually oppressively hot, so much so, as to often bring about diseases, which are sometimes of a serious character. As a barier to the incurring of such, we commend cleanliness, moderate exercise, regular habits, and a light and wholesome diet; refraining entirely from the use of the variety of luxurious, yet green vergitables that are in market at this season of the year; check the cravings of the appetite until they have ripened into maturity, and then, their use will tend to the promotion of health than otherwise. If you abstain from the violation of nature's laws, you will seldom, if ever, need to call a Physician or suffer the pangs of disease.

Dr. C. H. Baily, of the United States navy, now stationed at the Pensacola navy-yard, has written a letter to the editor of the Pensacola Gazette, in which he states:

"There is on the farm of Mr. Willis Sturtevant, a mineral spring that has, like many a gem of immense value, been overlooked for many years. It is a sulphur challybeate, and, if I am not much mistaken; very little inferior, if not equal to, the celebrated Saratoga Springs in medicinal qualities. This will be of immense value to the citizens of Pensacola, Mobile, and New Orleans.— Being but four miles distant from the city of Pensacola, invalids from the State of Alabama and Lousiana will have every advantage of safe and speedy travel, by water to Pensacola, and thence four miles by omnibus to the spring."

From the Washington Union.

A New Fanaticism.

While the people of Boston are doubtless as loyal to the constitution as any other similar number of American citizens, they are cursed with some of the most desperate fanatics in the Union. These reckless agitators care little what it is they oppose, so that the cause they persecute is good. Thus we have seen them insulting the remains of their own brave son, the gallant Col. Lincoln, who fell in defence of his country's flag; and next we have them arrayed in violent hostility to Mr. Webster, who had served them with pre-eminent distinction inthe national legislature, but who was finally repudiated because he would not repudiate the constitution. The three demonstrations against fugitive-slave law recall also the organization to resist the order of the Post Office Department some years ago, and the attack in Boston harbor upon the frigate Constitution which bore the figure-head of Jackson. It is somewhat in contrast with the pretences of Boston fanaticism in favor extreme freedom—in favor of perfect equality—in favor of the obliteration of the distinctions between whites and blacks —that while they (the fanatics) are ready to hang, draw, and quarter all who will not resist any law that guaranties to a southern man his rights to his property, they themselves do not hesitate, at the same, time, to hunt down a white man as if he were an incarnate fiend, simply because he may happen to be an Irishman or a Catholic!

There is now growing into evanescent prominence and power a party which rejoices in the name of "know-nothings," and, judging from the subjoined article from its Boston organ, takes chief encouragement and creed from Boston fanaticism. We shall not be astonished to see it growing into strength, and for a brief period, sweeping other parties into the minority. Such is the history of all similar paroxysms. Such was nativism, of which, by the way "know-nothingism" is one of the direct results. Such was anti-masonry; and such is the periodical influence secured to the anti-slavery organization in certain quarters in the East and West.

A religious movement entirely, assuming possession of the political field, and appealing to every element of bigotry as a means of success, is a new idea in the way of parties, even in a country where opinion and where auction are so comparatively unrestrained. We have seen this argument controling bodies of men before; but this is the first time that a religious phrensy has been publicly invoked in support of a political party. Even the native-Americans have denied it with much indiguation. Now it is boldly disclosed to the world as one of the chief animating causes of the new political combination: indeed, not only is the organization based upon hostility to all the Catholics of the day, but also upon hostility to all adopted citizens.

We have more than once referred to the fact that all these fanatical organizations are in their nature and in their inception intended to break down the democratic party. This is an additional reason, if other considerations of duty did not appeal to us in the same direction, why democrats should unhesitatingly oppose and expose them. On the other hand, the whigs, especially in the northern States, have rarely halted or hesitated in uniting with these organizations of the day, when, by so doing, they could obtain an occasional advantage. The consequence has been the frequent defeat of the democracy, standing fast, as that party has done, to the great principles which are irreconcilably adverse to all factious, bigoted, or sectional parties. No consideration of loss or of defeat, however, has controlled the democracy, or deterred it in the discharge of its obligations to principle. It has never wavered from the first, but has consistently denounced and finally defeated all the schemes of demagogues and fanatics, whether in politics or in religion.

In this connexion, and at this moment, it is due to the truth that we should admonish all adopted citizens against taking part themselves in sectional or exclusive parties. Such movements are being advocated in different parts of the Union by those who are, on the other hand, opposed by nativist and religious combinations. The practice is most objectionable, no matter where it exists, and it will be adding fuel to the flame if, while fanatics on one hand, seek to assail any porion of the people for their places of birth or their religious views, they may be able to justify their own excesses by pointing out organizations of a similar character among those to whom they are adverse—and especially if they can say that these organizations existed before their own know-nothing" party was established. There is but one party in this country which is the natural, traditional, and active and existing foe of all bigotry, proscription, and fanaticism— but one that is strong enough to resist the tyranny of momentary excitements and reckless mobs created by sudden popular disputes—and that is the democratic party. It is the only great organization that can afford to be defeated in such a cause. It is the only one which proves its sincerity by its sacrifices. Let those who are interested in knowing this fact lay it well and closely to heart.

New Hampshire Legislature, &c.—CONCORD, June 28.—The debate on the anti-Nebraska resolutions was continued in the house to-day, but without final action.

All the banking bills were matured, and passed the house to-day.

CONCORD, June 29.—This being the day assigned for another trial to elect a United States senator for New Hampshire, the balloting was resumed this morning. The first balloting resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 303: necessary for a choice; 162. John S. Wells had 150; Joel Eastman, 79, Tappan, 16; Thompson, (Morrison is probably meant.) 52; scattering, 6.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

CONCORD, June 29.—John S. Wells was to-day elected United States senator for the short term on the part of the senate.

BUFFALO.

Dreadful Accident at Niagara Falls.—Buffalo City Bonds.—June 28.—A terrible accident occurred this morning at Niagara Falls. A little girl, five years of age, who was playing on the top of the precipice known as the Devil's Hole, approached too near the edge and overbalanced. For an instant she clung to the bushes, but, losing her hold before assistance could reach her, fell into the gulf, a distance of 150 feet. She still survives, but her recovery is impossible.

The interest on the Buffalo city bonds, due today in New York, would not be paid, in consequence of an injunction on the council. The bonds due on the 29th will not be paid for a similar reason.

The crops in Maryland.—The wheat harvest has come suddenly upon us. The rust within a week or ten days past has made havoc in the crops, and hastened the time of reaping. A gentleman near Cambridge, who expected to realize a crop of 2,500 bushels, informs us that he estimates his loss by the rust at 1,000 bushels. Cambridge Chronicle, 25th.

In South Carolina.—The Abbeville Banner says the crops in every portion of the district are the finest that have greeted the eyes of our good planters for many a long year.

In Florida.—The indications at present are that a most bountiful crop is to reward the toils of the Farmers of Florida in the coming harvest. Not for years has the crop been so promising as now.—Tallahassee Journal.

In Lousiana.—Our planters are complaining of the wet weather and the destruction of the crops. The cane is suffering; the corn and cotton are almost a total loss. Grass gaining awfully.—Opelausas Courier.

☞ New one dollar counterfeit notes on the Jamestown branch of the Indiana State Stock Bank have made their appearance. They are issued with various numbers.—The imitations are good, but the paper is causer than the genuine and not so well engraved. The shading is also darker. The vignette is a wood scene, and the mark on the chopped end of the fallen long is much longer than the genuine.

Another new State.—A bill to provide for the admission of Oregon into the Union as a State, has already been reported in the House of Representatives, and the Legislature of Oregon have taken the preliminary steps towards calling a convention to form a constitution. This is looking to the admission of Oregon as a State in 1855, by which time it is presumed there will be the requisite amount of population in the territory to entitle it to the new honors to which it is now aspiring. The Organians are thuse calculating upon a rapid growth by accession of population from the Atlantic States, which may not be fulfilled.— The emigration overland this season does not appear to be very large. When the census of 1850 was taken the population of Oregon was 13,294. A territorial census recently taken shows it to have a population amounting to over 40,000, or an increase of near 27,000 in three years, or about 148 per cent. This is in the ratio of 46 per cent per annum, which would be entirely inadequate to swell the aggregate of population to over 90,000 in a single year. However, we presume the Organians think there is nothing to be by agitating the subject, and perhaps they think also that as the admission of a new State is always delayed unnecessarily, they will have their delay beforehand.

Editorial Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, June 25th.

Congress is now quite diligent, and making good progress with business. It will probably adjourn early in August. A proposition is before both Houses, and will probably pass, providing for the commencement of the sessions, hereafter, in October, instead of December as at present. This will give more time for the short session, and enable Congress to get through in the long one, without having to sit during the hot weather.

The further considerations of the Pacific Railroad bill has been postponed until December next, to give time for the reception of the reports of the Engineers who have been surveying the various routes. The Minnesota Railroad bill has passed the House by a majority of 24 votes, which gives great hopes to the friends of the other railroads, as an evidence that the temper of the House is not hostile to the policy of making grants to Railroads. I still consider the prospects of our great road—the Fort Wayne, Lacon, & Platte Valley Airline—encouraging, although I much fear we shall have to encounter the uncompromising hostility of the entire Iowa delegation, who appear so much wedded to their own pet projects and local interests, that we have not as yet been able to make any terms with them. I think it doubtful whether they can defeat us; but the attempt will inevitably ensure the loss of their own bill. If Iowa gets no grants this session, she can thank her own delegation for the failure. If she wants any hereafter, she will have to send men of more liberal views to Congress.

Among the notables here, I may mention the celebrated Capt. Rynders of New York, who has recently married a young, pretty, and rich little Quakeress, and brought her here on a bridal tour. The redoubtable captain is not near so formidable a looking man as might be expected from his reputation. But perhaps the humanizing influence of his friendly little helpmate may have softened down his rugged nature. I saw him the other evening, while the Marine Band was playing at the Capitol grounds, looking on a group of young children, with a most benignant and parental aspect, and from the occasional glances he stole at his amiable young wife, and her modest blushes, I conjectured he was looking forward to the time when he would have such a group round his own hearth. May his brightest anticipations be realized.

Hon. Jesse D. Bright, our Senator, is again at his post and busily attending his duties. I was pleased to see that he had entirely recovered from his late severe illness, and looked as hearty, whole-souled, and good humored as ever—a pleasure in which I have no doubt all my readers will share. He is extremely popular here, and wields great influence in the Senate.

The Nebraska and Kansas appointments have been sent in to the Senate, but are not yet ratified. It is generally believed the following are the happy men:

For Nebraska.—Wm. O. Butler, of Kentucky, Governor: Cummings, editor of Keokuk Dispatch, Iowa, Secretary; Ferguson of Mich. Chief Judge; Bradley of Indiana, and Harden of Georgia, Associate Judges: Mark Ozard of Arkansas, Marshal: Esternell of Wisconsin District Attorney.

For Kansas.—Andrew H. Reeder of Pa. Governor; Woodson of Va. Secretary; Johnson of Ohio, Chief judge; Brown of Md. and Ellmore of Alabama, Associate judges; Isacks of Louisiana, District Attorney; Donelson of Illinois Marshall.

It is generally thought that Gen. Butler will not accept, and that Mr. Manypenny of Ohio, present Commissioner of Indian Affairs, will be appointed Gov. of Nebraska.

FOREIGN NEWS.

One week later News.

The America arrived this morning with dates to the 25th. It is reported that the Turks have driven the Russians from Silistria,

The Russians have been surprised and beaten in of the mountain passes by the Circassians.

The Austrians were on their march through Bohemia to the Eastern frontier.

All the Austrian garrisons are being reinforced, and all the disposable troops were being concentrated in Bohemia.

The Death of Mustapha Pacha in Silistria is confirmed. He was killed by a grenadier. He had repulsed a heavy brido from Prince Paskiewitch.

It is announced that Admiral Napier destroyed and captured several gun-boats and ships on the 30th of May, in the Baltic. 15,000 marines had been landed at Marien.

Prince Paskiewitch had received orders from St. Petersburgh to retire byond the Pruth.

The Turks had driven the Russians out of Tuturkai, and have also stredgthened their garison at Rustchuck.

Operations against Silistria have been suspended, since which Paskiewitch was on his way to cross the Pruth.

These events had caused a great deal of excitement at St. Petersburg.

ENGLAND.—In the House of Lords an animated discussion had taken place on the present state of affairs, in regard to the war.

☞ As a Spring and Summer Medicine, Carter's Spanish Mixture stands pre-eminent above all others Its singularly efficacious action on the blood; its strengthening and vivifying qualities, its tonic action on the liver; its tendency to drive all humors to the surface, thereby cleansing the system according to Nature's own prescription; its harmless, and at the same time extraordinary good effects, and the number of cures testified ty by many of the most respectable citizens of Richmond, Va., and elsewhere, must be conclusive evidence that there is no humbug about it.

The trial of a single bottle will satisfy the most sceptical of its benefits.

Joy for the Invalid.—Persons afflicted with any diseases arising from a disordered liver, stomach, nervous debility, dyspepsia, or liver complaint, should try Dr Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M Jackson No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.— They scarcely ever fail effecting a cure in a very short time. Be careful to procure the genuine, and be not deceived by the quack medicines which are advertised. We have seen stronger testimony in favor of the above article, than any other prepared medicine now before the public.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the lungs.— We refer to "Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor of Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavities of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.— New York Dutchman of Jan. 14th.

Carter's Spanish Mixture,

The Great Purifier of the Blood.

NOT A PARTICLE OF MERCURY IN IT.

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or the Blood.

This valuable Medicine, which has become celebrated for the number of extraordinary cures its agency, has induced the proprietors, at the urgent request of their friends, to effect it to the public, which they do with the utmost confidence in its virtues and wonderful curative properties. The following certificates, selected from a large number, are, however, stronger testimony than the mere word of the proprietors; and are all from gentlemen well known in their localities, and of the highest respectability, many of them residing in the city of Richmond, Va.

F BOYDEN, Esq., of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, known every where, says he has seen the Medicine called CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE administered in over a hundred cases, in nearly all the diseases for which it is recommended, with the most astonishingly good results. He says it is the most extraordinary medecin he has ever seen.

AGUE AND FEVER—GREAT CURE.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Tonies advertised but all all without any permanent relief. At last I tried CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say I have had neither Chills or Fevers since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ever reached my case. JOHN LONG.

Beavor Dam, near Richmond, Va.

C. B. LUCK, Esq., now in this city of Richmond, and for many years in the Post Office, has such confidence in the astonishing efficacy of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, that he has bought upwards of 50 bottles, which he has never known it to fail when taken accordidg to directions.

Dr. MINGE, a practising Physician, and formerly of the City Hotel, in the city of Richmond, says he has witnessed in a number of instances the effects of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE which were most truly surprising. He says in a case of Consumption, dependent on the Liver, the good effects were wonderful indeed.

SAMUAL M. DRINKER, of the firm of Drinker & Morris, Richmond, was cured of Liver Complaint of 3 years standing, by the use of two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

GREAT CURE OF SCROFULA.—The Editors of the Richmond Republican had a servant employed in their press room, cured of violent Scrofula, combined with Rheumatism, which entirely disabled him from work. Two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture made a perfect cure of him, and the Editors, in a public notice, say they "cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted with any disease of the blood."

STILL ANOTHER CURE OF SCROFULA.—I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrofula by Carter's Spanish Mixture. I consider it truly a valuable medicide. JAMES M. TAYLOR, Conductor on the R. F. & P. R. R. Co., Richmond, Va.

SALE RHEUM OF 20 YEARS STANDING CURED.

Mr. JOHN THOMPSON, residing in the city of Richmond, was cured by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum, which he had nearly 20 years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure. Mr Thompson is a well known merchant in the city of Ricmond, Va, and his cure is most remarkable.

WM. A. MATTHEWS, of Richmond, had a servant cured of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He says he cheerfully recommends it, and considers it an invaluable medicine.

RICHARD WEST, of Richmond, was cured of Scrofula, and what Physicians called confirmed Consumption, by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

EDWIN BURTON, commissioner of the revenue, says he has seen the good effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture in a number of Syphilitic cases, and says it is a perfect cure for that horrible disease.

WM. G. HARWOOD, of Richmond, cured of Old Sores and Ulcers, which disabled him from walking. Took a few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and was enabled to walk without a crutch, in a short time permanently cured.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

"The Bitters mixture is, without doubt, the greatest medicine extant for diseases of the Liver and Bowels. A stubborn case of Chronic Diarrhea has come under our notice, wherein the patient has exhausted the Materia Medicas of the different schools of medicine, with no apparent benefit. He was induced to use these bitters, and a few bottles of them entisely cured him. Many such cases we could refer to. We hope our readers will recollect this great restorative, should they be so unfortunate as to require its use. Dr Jackson possesses the original unpublished receipt of Dr. Hoofland, and he prepares this medicine with great care. Those purchasing should call at his store, or see that his name is written upon the wrapper outside, and blown in the bottles, as imitations of all good articles are common."—Philadelphia Democrat (German).

MEDICATED INHALATION.
A New Method.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or INHEALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the city of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession.—[See certificates in hands of Agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine.

Here is a case:

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Dec 20th, 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma: for the last I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing and my sufferings were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night: I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is,—TRY IT.

MAGARET EASTON.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

NEW YORK, Dec 27th, 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St John's, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor, had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

MOFFITT'S

Patent Grain Separator,

I WISH to call the attention of those interested to my eight horse power "GRAIN SEPARATOR," which, after having been for the past two years in successful operation, has proven itself to be greatly superior, in every particular, to all other now in use.

The first premium was awarded to this machine at the Ohio State Fair, held in Dayton—also, at the World's Exhibition in New York, in 1853—the only places at which it has been exhibited in this country.

At a practical test of this Separator in competition with the best at those made in England, last season, it received the highest commendations of the press, and of all the leading Agriculturists in that country.

I will have a large number ready for the coming crop, made of the best material, and warranted to do good work.

I am also making a number of my small Separators for the convenience of those who wish to have their own machines. They are driven by two horses on an endless chain, or by four in a lever power. They thresh and clean the grain perfectly, and deliver it in bags. Its weight is 750 pounds.

N. B. References in abundance can be given if desired.

If will have fifty of Crawford's Patent Clover Hullers ready for the Clover Crop. This Huller is undoubtedly the best now in use.

RRR REMEDIES

☞R. R. R.—What do the Sick Require? To those who think.—If sick, if suffering the tortures of pain, or afflicted with long illness, the invalids constant hope and most fervent desire is to be relieved and cured of the distressing ailment, that renders the existence so miserable, in the quickest possible time. On this principle the R. R. R. REMEDIES are founded. Instant Relief from Pain, Quick Cure of Diseases, Speedy Restoration to Health, is the great platform on which the R R.R Theory is predicated.

The R.R.R. REMEDIES are worthy of the age. They instantly relieve the bed-ridden from the most excruciating pains, and quickly free the afflicted from the most obstinate and serious maladies, infusing new life and vigor in the shattered and bruissed body, and renew each member and organ of the human system with strength and power.

The R. R. R. REMEDIES consist of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT, and RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is for the instant relief of the sufferer from pain, and to check and arrest the progress of diseases; to disinfect animal, malarious, and infectious poisons, thus protecting whoever uses it against all poisonous infection from contagion, and from sudden attacks of Cholera. Pneumonia, Ship Fever, Fever and Ague, &c. Likewise for the effectual and radical removal of all pains and diseases of the Joints, Limbs, Nerves, &c.

Its first action is to remove the pain, (hence its usefulness in Neuralgic cases;) its second, to repair and heal, as in the of a cut, or wound. If the Relief be applied after the first little smarting is over, the pain is extinguished, and the work of reparation now commences. But if the Relief is not applied, there are many chances to one that the pain will continue and an inflammation be set up and instead of a single incised wound we have Inflammation—disease to contend with. Besides its direct power over pain, the Ready Relief is the most effectual and convenient "counter irritant" that is known to the medical world.

If there be a congestion or heaping up of the blood in any particular part, occasioning pain and threatening inflammation or disease, as Sore Throat, Lumbago or pains in the loins, Pleuratic congestion, &c., the Relief will be found the most invaluable curative. By applying it over the adjacent parts, the blood is drawn away from the affected parts, the congestion dissipated, and the pain removed at once. Let any who may doubt this but make the trial.—Now, these two properties, its power over pain and its "counterirritant," render it the most valuable remedy for Diarrhœa; and although not an astringent in the popular meaning of the term, well he stops the pain and arrests the discharge of the most frightful Diarrœa and Cholera in short time.

DESINFECTANT,

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the most safe and powerful desinfectant in the world—as such, it is a most effectual cure and positive preventive of

FEVER AND AGUE.

So with other fevers and other malarious diseases. Ten or twenty drops taken internally, in a little water, will protect the system against any attacks from infections and malarious poisons.

PNEUMONIA,

whether Typhoid or Bilious, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF given internally and applied over the surface of the body, and the bowels regulated and kept soluble with RADWAY'S REGULATOR, the patient will soon be out of danger, and speedily restored to health. If the R. R. R. Remedies are given they will save the life of the patient.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT

is the second of the R. R. R. Remedies. It is for the cure old Chronic diseases that have been lingering in the system for years.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO ALL AFFLICTED WITH CHRONIC DISEASES.

For the present, then, let us pass to the consideration of the RESOLVENT, the second of the three R. R. R. Medicines.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT is for the cure of Chronicle Diseases, or inflammation that is kept alight on fire by some sustaining cause; for the Chemists tell us that inflammation is a slow concealed combustion and his cause is a deposis resulting from the inflammation whilst it is in an active or acute condition, for all disease is at one time acute before it becomes chronic. If a person has Chronic Rheumatism, it is the result of a deposit in the fibrous tissue surrounding joints; if a person is Scrofulous, these deposits often show themselves in small lumps under the chin and along the neck; if he has a Consumption or Chronic Cough, there is tuberculous matter deposited in the lungs; if Bronchitis, it takes place in the bronchial tubes; if Syphilis, it occurs in every tissue and organ of the system, for that disease spares nothing. Now, to cure these diseases, these chronic inflammations., (for it is this in every case,) it is manifest that the diseased deposits must be first removed, the sustaining cause be taken away, and that the impure blood be altered in its condition and rendered pure and healthy.

It becomes necessary, then, that the absorbants be active and the blood be purified. We therefore want a medicine that will act on the absorbents and stimulate them into action, and at the same time purify the blood. Medicines that depend merely on purifying the blood alone will scarcely over cure chronic disease to ensure success they must at first have the power to stimulate the absorbents, and remove the diseased deposits. The action of the RESOLVENT is directed first to the absorbents, stimulating them into action; and second to the blood which it depurates by its action over the glands, the liver, pancreas, kidneys, &c., which are the sewers that nature has established for purifying the blood. You will alter this description, we hope, appreciate the name we have given to the second of the R. R. R. REMEDIES, OF RENOVATING RESOLVENT. It resolves ady deseused deposits; it purifies the blood and it renovates the system. Tumors are removed and discussed by its operation; Chronic Swellings are dissipated. Nodes are softened and melted away. The most loathsome Skin diseases disappear under its action. Scrofulous constitutions are soon amended, add the disease checked wherever it has attacked the system. Syphilis, with all its horrible train of consumption, too of times finds its master—Consumption, that prevalent and lamentable disease of the lungs, that is so well known to you all, from its fatal and almost helpless character, and the havoc it produces among the young, the most gifted and the most beautiful of the human race, creeping over our vitals with aninsidious yet awful certainly, and consigning to an early and premature grave its yearly hecatombs of victims. Tubercular Consumption is often regarded as a specific disease of the lungs alone. This is a mistake. It is but one of the forms of Scrofula—it is a Scrofulous deposit an inflammation of the lung structure and could be as readily cured as any other scrofulous disease—such as Rickets, Hip Complaint or White Swelling—in which it takes place.

The lungs expand and contract during every respiration; and from the moment the first breath of life is dawn, until the last guttural sigh passes from the dying invalid a never ceasing action is kept up on their part. It will readily conceived then how difficult it must be for an Ulcer of the lungs to heal where it is continually kept irritated by the act of sea thing.

Understand, then we do not offer you the RESOLVENT as so certain a cure for Consumption or Scrofula of the lungs, as it is for other Chronic diseases. We believe that it will cure Scrofula in any other part of the body but from the very nature of the case, the complaint—except in its first stages—is of times incurable; but we can recommend it as the most certain remedy [when taken as directed in our pamphlets] that we presess to arrest its progress, and can point to a large number of cases of Lung Diseases that it has cured.

Such then, is the RENOVATING RESOLVENT. What the Relief is to Acute disease the RESOLVENT is to Chronic; it resolves away the foreign and diseased deposit. It purifies the blood and it renovates the system.

NO. 3.

We now request the reader's attention to third of the R. R. R REMEDIES.

RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

Every pill taker should examine the theory on which the REGULATORS are founded. Every one "who takes pill," will find RADWAY'S REGULATORS the most pleasant and safe Regulator of the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and other organs of the system nuse.

We have hitherto been treating of disease or inflammation in its acute or chronic state and its remedies; the RELIEF on one hand and the RESOLVENT on the other. We now pass to the consideration of that state of the system immediately preceding disease or inflammation, viz: IRR TATION. To allay irritation of the nervous system, and remove it effects wherever it exists, and to aid the RELIEF or RESOLVENT in treatment of inflammation, are the chief purposes of the REGULATORS.

But how is her ousnirrtation the cause to disease? Because the glands of the system are controlled by the brain and nervous centers, and what eiirritates the braincause irregularities of the grands, and when the glands refuse to do their work, the foreign matter which it is their duty to remove, is left in the blood, and Increases the already existine irritation. The glands are serveous the system and are compose cheefly of the Liver the Kidness the Pancreas, the Salivary Glands and those of theskil and intestinal canal. Now, a regular and honest action of these organs are indisensable to keeping the blood in a pure and natural state. If we give you poison instead of food to ef you can eurily understand and that the blood will be corrupted by it, and diseased action will follow, and it will be just as surely corrupted if the glands do not abstract the work out mareriale rom it.

Again it the kidneys be interfered with in their action, from any irritation whatsoeve, why then we have the salts of the urine the poisonous ured circulating in the blood, producing headaches, coma drowsines, &c.

And, last and most important of all, if any irritating causes interfere with the opendtion of that great laboratory the Liver, behold the disastrous effect! The bile, instead obpassing into the intestines to and them in their movements, [for the bile is Nature's purgative] is left to cire fate in the blood, the bowels, therefore become inactive and the carbeniferous bile [for carbon or charboul is the chief component of bile] circulating in the blood is the cause of the feves of the system. The suberabundance of craben in he blood meeting with the oxygen as it passes through the lungs is slowly consumed, and gives out a superabundance of heat, and this is fever.

RADWAYS REGUCATORS induce a healthy regularity of glandular action. No Costiveness, or Dyspepsia of Ingligestion, or Pains in the Side, or Liver Complaint or Pains in the Kidneys will trouble you if RADWAY'S REGULATORS are taken, and we positively assure all who are afflicted with these distressing complaints that RADWAY'S REGULATORS will cure them.

R. R. R. REMEDIES are suited to the treament and, unaided will cure most of "the ills that flesh is heir to" The sanguinary practice of the lance, the cupping glass, and leeches, they entirely dispense with, and banish forever the pernicious use of that banuul drug, dalomel.

If you be sick, we advise you to resort once to the R. R. R. REMEDIES, as the most prompt in their action, the most state and effectual of remedes.

Instances of disenses prevented, of rapid cures, and almost miraculous recoveries we can furnish you the certificates and credentials without number.

But these may be obtained without merit as well as with it, and without knowing the circumstances, prove nothing to your mind.

The R. R. R. RREMEDIES are forsale by drugists everywhere. Persons desirous of learning more of our REMEDIES are referred to our FAMILY FRIEND and monthly paper. A copy will be sent free of charge, to all who will send in their names and address.

F. S. AVALINE,

No. 125 Columbia Street, (over R W. Taylor's Store), east of Hill & Orbison's, Fort Wayne,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has bought out Messrs. Anderson & Co, and is now receiving a large and new assortment of including all sorts, sizes, and qualities; warranted to be of the best workmanship, and got up in the latest and neatest styles.

THE LADIES will find every variety of Polkas, Gaiters, Buskins, Excelsiors, Jenny Linds, Ties, Slips, &c., &c. Also, MISSES' and CHILDREN'S WEAR in great variety.

FOR GENTLEMEN, besides Eastern work, he has a large assortment of Home-Made Calf and Kip Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Sogas, Brogans, &c. In short the stock is complete in every respect, and will be sold CHEAPER than everbefore in Fort Wayne! This is no idle boast, but the plain fact, as will be demonstrated to the satisfaction of all who will favor him with a call. The way this can be done is, simply, that they have been bought for Cash, and will be sold for the same exclusively, whereby the risk and loss of a credit business being obviated, buyers will only have to pay for their own Shoes, and not be taxed in addition a heavy per centage to shoe their neighbors.

Leather, Bindings, Findings, &c.

A heavy stock of Sole and Upper Leather, Calf and Kip Skings, Linings, Bindings, Findings, &c., are also offered far below former prices.

About Medicine.

SEEING the world is full of new Medicines, if any person would introduce still another, in the midst of confusion, what is to be done? There is nothing to be done, if the medicine is good, that we know of, only to write the truth about it, in plain language, and let the article stand on its own merits, by speaking for itself through its cures. Of the purely natural Remedy obtained from a Salt Well, 400 feet deep, in Pennsylvania,

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

We observe that as it cures various diseases, it will not do to class it among the humbugs,—although it is too much to say it will cure every body every time. Few, very few, however, among the multitudes now using it, are disappointed. Used as it is, both EXTERNALLY and INTERNALLY, it stands the greater chance of reaching the seat of disease. There are various kinds of old Petroleum—offensive to smell and taste. Many of the Liniments of the day (and some are very good) are compounded in part with some kind of Rock Oil. Hence it stands to reason that if a Petroleum can be had which can be swallowed it must be good, and thus, Kier's Oil, having that advantage, is the very essence and quintessence of medicine. It doctors the whole man, from head to foot—flesh and blood—skin and bones, and eradicates Disease and the cause of Disease—root and branch.

Justified in using this language, as the Proprietors are, from personal observation for the last two or three years, as well as from constantly accumulating testimony—Letters—Certificates—printed, and written, and verbal Statements,—we do not feel at liberty to hold back the result from the people—it would not be right.

IF YOU OBJECT

that it is said to cure too many diseases to be good—We reply—We cannot tell how it is, but so it is—that it cures so many diseases—and it is no affair of ours—it is the good fortune of the afflicted. We suppose it is just as easy for NATURE to make a Remedy for the whole man as part of a man—she never leaves her work half done. Another thing—we do not have as many diseases as we think. Take for instance

SCROFULA—or KING'S EVIL, and all those Diseases having their origin in a depraved condition of the blood, and other fluids of the body,—this Oil will eradicate them with little cost. And yet there are perhaps a dozen different manifestations of Scrofula, in the same or in different persons—and some people call them different diseases, which will never do. It was the opinion of the late Dr Rush, Philadelphia, that there existed in Nature an antidote to every malady to which man is liable.

REFERENCES.

We add a few cures from the many certificates at hand:

RHEUMATISM.—G. M. Spencer, Three Rivers, Mich.; F. H. Bleecker, Cincinnati (both inflammatory); H. Folmer, Del. Co., Ind; P. H. Milibank, 65 years old, Utica. Take teaspoonful 3 times a day and bathe.

COUGH.—Rev. B. Halsted, John Watt, W. Day (for breast and lungs), Pittsburgh. Teaspoonful 3 times a day.

SORE EYES.—J C Fisher, La Grange Centre; J M Mead, Mishawaka; S Nigh, Hagerstown. Apply 2 or 3 times a day, and if there is a scrofulous tendency, dose 3 times a day. Allow a little to get under the lid.

PILES.—E C Garretson, Cin.; Mr. Shell, Allen Co., Ind., J M Marshall, Salisbury, and others.—use internally and externally.

DIARRHÆA.—J Donovan, Indianapolis, grandson, 2 years old, of diarrhœa from his birth. H Wise, Pittsburgh, dose every three hours.

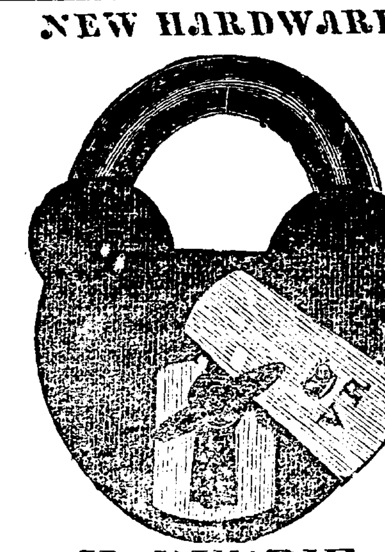

AGUE.—J G Jones, Terre Haute, Dec. 23, 1853—wife and 2 children cured of inveterate ague, and many others. Dose every 3 hours in absence of the fever.

DOCTOR J. FLATERRY, Columbus, writes that in his practice KIER'S PETROLEUM has superceded the use of Cod Liver Oil for the Lungs, and he uses it exclusively for Diarrhea and Dysentery, Scrofulous Affections and Enlargements of the Spleen.

Proclamation to the Invalids of Syracuse.

$1,000 REWARD!

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains

ARE for the first time introduced to the people of Syracuse and vicinity, and the most convenient, effectual and strictly scientific mode of instantly relieving and permanently curing all

NERVOUS DISEASES.

Now we know that an announcement similar to the above meets the eye of the reader almost daily, and perhaps this may be classed with many others. But listen or you do us injustice. It is claimed that Pulvermacher's Electric Chain is the only magnetic remedial agent that is secured by patent granted by this government, on the ground that it was a strictly useful and scientific article. The Chains are now on exhibition at the Crystal Palace and attract much attention from the thousands who daily visit it.

MODE OF USE.

The manner of using the Chains is very simple. The chain is first moistened with common vinegar, and then one end of the chain is applied to the part where the pain is located, and the other end opposite to the first. The ends of the chain should never touch each other. At the moment of application, the most acute pain is instantly relieved, wherever it is located, by the passing through the part a constant current of uninterrupted electro magnetism. In the following diseases, no other remedy has ever given such complete and perfect satisfaction to the patient as Pulvermacher's Electric Chains: Rheumatism, Painful and swelled Joints, Pains in the Back, Deafness, Blindness, Paralysis, Neuralgia in the face, Long standing Nervous Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, General Debility, Dyspepsia, Female Diseases, Asthma, Contracted Joints, &c.

1,000 DOLLARS

will be given to any person who will produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure from intelligent patients and scientific physicians of the above diseases as has been performed by the use of the Electric Chain during the past year.

ANOTHER FACT.

It is truly the fact that wherever the electric chains have been introduced bottled nostrums and common lard have greatly diminished in sale, people having become disgusted with the practice of using their stomach for drug shops.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Electric Chains are highly recommended by Professors Mott Van Buren, Post and Carnochan, of New York; are also in daily use in every Hospital in that city. The chains will last for years, are always ready for use, and produce no injurious results, when used as directed.

FEMALE DISEASES.

The introduction of the Electric Chain into this country is the dawn of a new era in medicine. During the last twenty years, it can safely be estimated that ten thousand female have died yearly from this one disease.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

It is well known to medical men that this common disease is beyond the reach of medicine, and that in proportion to the amount of medicine given, the more the patient is doomed to suffer, and sooner will death close the scene.

During the last 2 years more than one thousand cases of Prolapsus Uteri (falling of the womb) have been permanently cured in England and France. Most of those cases were ladies of high standing, who had previously tried all other kinds of treatment with no benefit. Among the distinguished ladies that have been cured in Paris is the present Queen of France. In this country, during the last year, one hundred cases have been cured in the city of New York, many who have allowed their names to be published for the benefit of those suffering with similar complaints. The mode of use is simply to apply one end of a 30 link chain to the spine just above the hips, and the other end upon the abdomen, and allow the chain to remain for one hour. This is to be repeated four times during the twenty-four hours.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

The Electric Chains never fail to relieve the severe pains and swelling incident to this disease. The worst forms of this disease readily yield to a few applications of a chain, and in no single instance have they failed to give instant relief, if they did not effect a permanent cure. All persons who are victims of this usual winter complaint, are kindly invited to call and obtain a pamphlet of Foot & Farrington, agents for Syracuse, who will also explain their mode of use.

The electric chains can be sent by mail to any part on the United States, by addressing (post paid) any of the agents in the principal cities, or Joseph Steinert, 568 Broadway, New York.

CARD TO LADIES.

Ladies who are enceinte are requested not to wear them only for a few minutes at each application, for by long continued use miscarriage is frequently produced.

Composition Cement Roofing.

THE subscriber has made arrangement and procured the necessary materials for covering buildings with the popular Composition and Gravel Roofing. This system of Roofing has given universal satisfaction wherever it has been introduced, and is rapidly superceeding all others. Its great advantages of durability, cheapness, tightness, and perfect safety from fire recommend it to all persons erecting good buildings. Though fully equal to tin in every respect, the cost is less than one half—but little more in fact than pine shingles.

For specimens the public are invited to examine the new 4 story Cabinet Shop of J. M. Miller; and Cooper's new Car Factory, south of A. Hamilton.

Pitt's Patent Separator,

IMPROVED DOUBLE PINION HORSE POWER,

Corn and Cob Mills, &c.

I HEREBY give notice that since the extension of the Patent Right on my machine for treshing and cleaning grain, I have removed to Buffalo, N Y, where I have permanently located and erected a large establishment for the future manufacture of the above machines.

The Separator has been enlarged, improved and rendered more permanent and durable in all its parts, while the Horse Power, for strength, ease, durability and cheapness of repair, is not surpassed by any in the United States. This Power is warranted to stand the full strength of eight horses; also to give as much effective or useful power when driven by one or two horses as any other Horse Power, whether constructed on the endless chain or lever principle. It was put on trial at the great exhibition of Horse Powers and Treshing Machines at Geneva in July, 1852, where it received the New York State Agricultural Society's first premium.

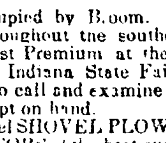

My machines will tresh and clean from three to five hundred bushels of wheat per day, and other grain in proportion. Two hundred of the above machines are for sale at the Agricultural works of the subscriber in this city, all warranted to be a better article than can be purchased at any other shop, and if they do not on trial prove to be so, I will take them off the hand of the purchasers at the price they may pay me for them.

I further notify all persons who are purchasing Horse Powers to be used in California and Oregon, that I will hold them accountable for any infringements to the rights secured to me by letters patent to the above machines, as I am manufacturing a Horse Power and Separator expressly for that section.

All orders for the above machines, hereafter addressed to John A Pitts, Buffalo, New York, will receive prompt attention. JOHN A PITTS.

POETRY.

From the State Journal.

SPIRIT MELODIES.

BY SAMUEL LEWIS JENKINSON.

A gentle spirit sweetly singeth,
Singeth sweetly unto me,
And a weary way it wingeth
From its dreamy home, and bringeth
Wild and witching melody,
Of the stars that faintly glimmer,
And the moon's so chilly shimmer,
Waxing brighter, waning dimmer,
Lessening, slow and silently.
As the clouded eye of sorrow
That a fading light doth borrow
From the hope of each tomorrow,
Dimmeth as the vision flies:
But I read that eye faint gleaming,
And the meek and chastened seeming,
And that alike glance softly beaming,
As it brightens, ere it dies;
And I know that soul is turning,
With a wild and rapturous yearning
To a longed-for Paradise.

And this spirit, too, is telling
Of the ocean wave madly swelling
In its dark and fearful pride,
Of the pure cool fountain welling
Deep with the mountain's side:
And 'tis but a faint revealing
Of the tide of hitherto feeling
Swelling in its ebb and flow—
Of a faith all buoyant stealing
Upward with a freshened glow.
And the moistened eye may glisten,
As these glorious songs we listen
Of the far off mysteries,
But within we hear the thrilling
That has waked the echo, filling
Earth with grandest symphonies.

And the star that faintly glimmers,
And the moon that chilly shimmers,
And the light, and tuneful air,
And the wailing in the mountain,
And the ever flowing fountain
Have a mystic marvel there.
But a deeper fountain hidden
In the secret soul, unbidden
Gushes in a thousand springs,
And a light is brighter growing
Than the distant starry glowing,
And a softer music flowing
From the heart's all trembling strings.

Fort Wayne, Ind., 1854.

Extracts from the Life of Jefferson.

BY HENRY S. RANDALL, L. L. D.

Mr. Jefferson as a lover.

With Mr. Jefferson, the lover succeeded the school boy in the due and time honored order, as laid down by the "melancholy Jaques."—The only record of this affair is to be found in a series of letters addressed by him to his friend Page, commencing immediately after he left college, and extending, at intervals through the two succeeding years. These are to be found at length in Professor Tucker's life of him, and in the Congress edition of his correspondence.—They possess some interest, perhaps, in relation to their subject matter, but most, as the earliest specimen of their author's epistolary writing which have been preserved. Though they displayed something of that easy command of language—that "running pen" for which he was afterwards so celebrated, they exhibit no peculiar grace of style, or maturity or thought. Perhaps, however, these would scarcely be expected in the careless, off-hand effusions of boyish intimacy. It causes a smile to see the future statesman "sighing like a furnace" in a first love; concealing after the approved fashion of student life, the name of his mistress under awkward Latin puns, and Greek anagrams, to bury a secret which the world, of course, was supposed to have a vast interest in discovering; delightfully describing happy dances with his "Belinda" in the Apollo (that room of the Raleigh tavern where we shall soon find him acting so different a part;) vowing the customary despairing vow, that "if Belinda will not accept his service, it never shall be offered to another;" and so on to the end of the chapter in the well beaten track of immemorial prescription. The object of his attachment was a Miss Rebecca Burwell, (called Belinda as a pet-name or by way of concealment,) whom tradition speaks of as more distinguished for beauty than cleverness.

Mr. Jefferson's proposals seem to have been clogged with the condition that he must be absent for two or three years in foreign travel before marriage. Whether for this, or because her preferences lay in a different direction, Miss Burwell somewhat abruptly married another man, in 1764.

Mr. Jefferson was generally, however, rather a favorite with the other sex, and not without reason. His appearance was engaging. His face, though angular, and far from beautiful beamed with intelligence, with benevolence, and with the cheerful vivacity of a happy hopeful spirit. His complexion was ruddy and delicately fair; his red dish chestnut hair luxuriant and silken. His full, deep-set eyes, rather light in color, and inclining most to a blue or brown, according to the light in which they are viewed, were peculiarly expressive, and mirrored as the clear lake mirrors the cloud, every motion which was passing through his mind. He stood six feet two and a half inches in height, and though very slim, his form was erect and sinewy, and his movements displayed elasticity and vigor. He was an expert musician, a fine dancer, a dashing rider, and there was no manly exercise in which he could not play well his part. His manners were unusually graceful, but simple and cordial. His conversation already possessed no considerable share of that charm which, in after years, was so much extolled by friends, and to which enemies attributed so seductive an influence in moulding the young and the wavering to his political views. There was a frankness, earnestness and cordiality in its tone—a deep sympathy with humanity—a confidence in man and a sanguine hopefulness in his destiny—which irresistibly won upon the feelings not only of the ordinary hearer, but of those grave men whose commerce with the world had perhaps let them to form less glowing estimates of it—of such men as the scholar-like Small, the sagacious Wythe, the courtly and gifted Faquier. Mr. Jefferson's temper was gentle, kind and forgiving. If it naturally had any thing of that warmth which is the usual concomitant of affections and sympathies so ardent, it had been subjugated by habitual control. Yet, under its even placidity there was not wanting those indications of calm self-reliance and courage which all instinctively recognize and respect. There is not an instance on record of his having been engaged in a personal rencontre, or his having suffered a personal indignity. Possessing the accomplishments, he avoided the vices of the young Virginia gentry of the day, and a class of habits which, if not vices themselves, were too often made the preludes to them. He never gambled.—To avoid importunities to games which were generally accompanied with betting, he never learned to distinguish one card from another; he was moderate in the enjoyments of the table: to strong drinks he had an averson which rarely yielded to any circumstances. His mouth was unpoluted by oaths or tobacco! Though he speaks of enjoying "the victory of a favorite horse," and the "death of the fox," he never put but one horse in training to run, never run but a single race, and he very rarely joined in the pleasant excitement—he knew it to be too pleasant for the aspiring student—of the chase. With such qualities of mind and character, with the favor of powerful friends, and even of viceroyalty, to urge him onward, Mr. Jefferson was not a young man to be lightly regarded by the young or old of either sex.

He became of age in 1761.

MR. JEFFERSON'S HORSEMANSHIP AND HORSES.

[This appears as a note to the third sentence from the last of the preceding extract, but we prefer to give in the same form with our other extracts.]

No anticipating a particular recurrence to this topic, a few particulars of interest to those

"Whose words is saddle, spur, and spear,"

may here be presented.

Notwithstanding Mr. Jefferson was no turfman, he ever retained the partiality of a Virginian for this sport, and rarely lost a convenient opportunity, even when President, of witnessing a promising race. His marked fondness for horses commenced and ended only with his life. His preference was for the Virginia race-horse; he did not ride, and was scarcely willing to drive any other. Two or three pages of his farm book are devoted to the pedigrees of those purchased, or selected from his breeding stock, for his own use. He usually kept several fine brood-mares; and we shall find Bornwallis, in his predatory excursions in Virginia, carrying away the serviceable ones, and cutting the throats of the others, and of all the colts.

Mr. Jefferson was very particular in the care of his horses, and when young, was fastidious in the last degree in regard to their appearance. When his riding horse was led out, if his coat shone not a faultless as a mirror, he rubbed it with a white pocket handkerchief, and if this was soiled, the groom was condemned and admonished to be more particular in future! As saddle horses, he preferred fleet, high mettled animals, however tameless their temper. Col. Thomas Jefferson Randolph, in a letter to us, says: "A bold and fearless rider, you saw at a glance from his easy and confident seat, that he was master of his horse—which was usually the fine blood horse of Virginia. The only impatience of temper he ever exhibited, was with his horse, which he subdued to his will by a fearless application of the whip on the slightest manifestation of restiveness. He retained to the last his fondness for riding on horseback; he rode within three weeks of his death, when from disease debility and age, he mounted with difficulty. He rode with confidence, and never permitted a servant to accompany him. He was fond of solitary rides and musing, and said that the presence of a servant annoyed him.

This aversion to the common Virginia custom of being followed by a servant, was very strong. His right wrist was dislocated in France, and his left one, many years afterwards, by a fall on his terrace, and they never so far recovered as to become strong and firm. As he persisted in riding high-mettled-horses, his daughter, Mrs. Randolph, often besought him to allow a servant to accompany him, but without avail. On one occasion, in attempting to cross Moore's creek, near its confluence with the Rivanna, by a ford not recently used, his horse in descending the steep bank stuck fast in a newly formed bar of mud, and Mr. Jefferson was thrown over his head into the stream.—With his crippled arms he found it difficult to preserve himself from drowning. Mrs. Randolph now added tears to entreaties, but the reply was "that he would give up his rides altogether, if it was necessary for her comfort, but he would not be followed by a servant." He dispensed with his rule only on distant journeys.

Until after mid-life, he rarely drew rein for broken ground, and when in haste, unhesitatingly dashed through the Rivanna, even when the usually quiet stream was swollen into a wide and rapid river by rains. Instances of his fearless horsemanship, and anecdotes of his superb horses—"The General," "Carnelius," "Tarquin," "Diomend," "Arcturus," "Jacobin," "Celer," "Eagle," etc.,—are yet rife in family tradition and recollection. The fleet, fiery Eagle, was his last one, and was ridden by him almost daily until "within three weeks of his death," though he often required assistance to mount him from a terrace nearly on a level with the horse's back. Yet this animal was so spirited, that a young kinsman of Mr. Jefferson's, who rode with a company to meet Lafayette at his last visit to Monticello, found it necessary to quit the cavalcade, the horse became so ungovernably excited by the noise and crowd. On one occasion, when Mr. Jefferson was old and decrepit—long after the last accident to his wrists—a messenger arrived to inform him that a grandson had met with a disaster, and lay seriously injured at Charlottesville. The weather was dark and lowering, night was setting in, and he was more than usually feeble. He directed Eagle to be brought to the door. His family entreated him not to set out at such a time; but his order was repeated in a tone which brooked no further opposition. The moment he was in the saddle, he struck the noble horse, which bounded forward at full run. His family held breaths with suspense, expecting he would draw a bridle at the "notch," where the mountain descends abruptly. But the clatter of hoof from the rocky passes showed them that the fearful race was continued. He swept by the returning messenger like an arrow, and reached Charlottesville in a time that, over such ground, would have appalled the boldest young horseman in Virginia.

On a beautiful day in the latter part of February, (the opening of the Virginia spring,) for 1851, the author rode up to Monticello, having for his cicerone an old manumitted slave, who had for forty-five years belonged to Mr. Jefferson. Wormley had been first a door-yard servant, and subsequently a gardener. He had dug the grave of his master and others of his household, and now was the oldest living chronicler of the history of Monticello. Like most of his color, he had a strong attachment for horses.—After a few minutes' inquiries, his taciturnity gave way to animation of his favorite theme. He could distinctly remember, and described the points, height, color, pace, temper, &c., of every horse as far back as Arcturus, which Mr. Jefferson brought from Washington. A crag of serpentine jutting into the narrow road, built high on the sides of a steep ravine, was selected by the fiery stranger horse as a shying butt—as if conscious that it was dangerous for this rider to administer correction on such a spot. Mr. Jefferson tolerated this once or twice, but on its being repeated, punished the rearing and plunging animal with whip and spur until he was glad to put his fore feet on the rock and stand still. Higher up, Wormley pointed out the path, or the rough untrodden course, on the side of Carters' Mountain, where Mr. Jefferson rode away when a detachment of Tarleton's dragoons were sent to capture him, "but not till the red coats were climbing the mountains." An inspection of the deserted and dilapidated stables, called forth other incidents; and finally we returned so as to pass Moor's creek at the ford, where Mr. Jefferson was thrown over his horse's head into stream, as already mentioned. According to Wormley's recollections, he was saved by his horse, which extricating itself from the mud, purposely or by accident, approached so near to his master that he seized the reins and was drawn to the shore. We shall have more to do with Wormley's recollections, on other topics, hereafter.

White Labor vs. Negro Labor.

"IRISH AND NEGRO ROW.—There was a protracted and somewhat bloody fight yesterday afternoon, on the dock, at the foot of Washington street, between some negroes and Irishmen. The parties were about equal in point of numbers when the affair began, but the Irish soon colected in great force, and considering it a free fight, counted themselves in, and poor cuffee had not a ghost of a chance. Three of the negroes were badly beaten; one of them to such an extent that it was supposed he must die; but he is better this morning, and will probable recover. Some six or eight of the combatants, black and white were before Justice Bullard this morning, with a large number of witnesses to complicate the investigation. It seems to have been a sort of spontaneous outbreak, without any other cause than the mutual jealousy and dislike subsisting between the Celtish and Africans races. Before the police were able to suppress the row, something like a thousand persons had collected, besides those directly engaged in the affray."—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, 5th inst.

The foregoing is only one of the thousand similar instances which have taken place, and the ten thousand which must inevitably occur, arising from the course of abolitionists and freesoilers.—Wherever free negroes become at all numerous, they come in direct rivalry with white labor.—The white freemen of the north find themselves compelled to enter into rivalry with negro labor in order to get bread for their families. They find the freesoiler and abolitionist snubbing them, and giving preference to negroes. Yes, the freesoilers and abolitionists give negroes a preference over white men; these very white men, upon whose valor they rely for safety for themselves and their property in time of war and danger, while the negro is fattening in security at home. The negro is satisfied to live in filth, and with enough to keep soul and body together, and the white man is compelled to take the same wages or be turned off. Wherever the negroes are numerous enough, this will always be the case, and the abolitionists and freesoilers give them a preference. No wonder that every workingman's blood boils at this things; and the time will come when they may turn their indignations from the interfering, insolent negro to those who make them so, and who forget the rights of the white workingman. There are in Boston some twenty thousand Irish, who already feel chafed at the insolence and interference of negroes, and the preference shown them by freesoilers and abolitionists. It may be dangerous for those people long to tamper with the patience of their Irish fellow-citizens and native workingmen.

These abolitionists declare their perfect willingness that as many free negroes as choose may go to Nebraska. Now, it is very certain that every free negro who goes there will be all the time seeking employment which belongs to the white man; seeking the very jobs the white laborer seeks, while no slave would be permitted to do so, but quietly working on his master's farm, would be in the way of no white man.

Sooner or later, a fearful issue will be made between the working whites and the free negroes. As they become numerous, by emancipation or running away from the south, they will be pitted against the white man by the freesoilers and abolitionists, as they now are to a great extent.

Let the laboring white man of the country bear in mind the object of the freesoilers and the abolitionists to build up a free negrocracy, to compel the white labor to submit to the extortion of their freesoil and abolition employers. Let them mark well every man who gives preference to a negro over a white man, and they will soon be enabled to see who are their friends and the object of this preference.

It is enough to rouse to indignation the independent white citizen to see an aerid, bitter abolitionist turn him off from work or refuse it, and give it to some rank-odored negro. But when war comes, the negro is kept at home in fine employment, and the rejected white laborer is expected forth and risk his life to secure the property of the cold-blooded abolitionist and freesoiler, who refused him work to give a negro the preference.

Let the laboring men bear in mind that the great object of these men is to get up a class of negro laborers by which to injure white American laborers, citizens, soldiers, and jurymen.

This subject will before long command general attention, and of necessity the whole laboring class the north will be banded together against these interests and their rights.

Emigration to the New Territories.

The Abolitionists and Whigs are now seeking to make capital out of pretended efforts to encourage and facilitate emigration from the free States to Kansas and Nebraska, in order to meet and outvote the slaveholders who may locate there.—They will find few slaveholders there, and have no rivalry to overcome. The South has no design to enter the contest for the control of those regions. But there will be successful, and that the Abolitionists will now show their zeal for the cause of free territory by going themselves, in large numbers. Let them now show a disposition to labor, and endure the hardships of a frontier and pioneer life, for the sake of their cause, instead of remaining in the old States to preach, and agitate, and stir up riot and murder and treason. A fair field is open before them. If they have any fears that slavery will gain footing in Kansas, why not go there themselves in sufficient numbers to prevent it. They can well be spared from the older communities; and a little disposition to labor, as well as to agitate, is necessary to prove their sincerity. We believe, however, that the event will prove that the Abolitionists of the North and East have no intention to put "their own hands to the plough." Like Wendell Phillips and Theodore Parker, they will incite others to exertions, and then provide for their own safety and comfort at home. Those two valorous Boston agitators made speeches to a crowd that resulted in riot and the murderer of a citizen, and, instead of joining in the mob, they fled like cowards to their comfortable homes, and called on the Mayor to protect them and their property from threatened vegeance. And so it will be in regard to this emigration scheme.—They will call lustily to others to go to the new territories, and remain in comfort at home themselves. We want to see Abolitionist going to Kansas in great numbers. We don't want slavery established there, or anywhere else. We don't like the institution. So, turn out Abolitionist. There is a wide field for you in the western wilds; and if you are sincere in your professions you will help to occupy it, and prevent the extension of slavery.

It is a humbug. It is political capital they desire to make, and not free States.—Pittsburgh Post.

A New and Beautiful Tree in Oregon.—A Mr. Brooks, writing from Olympia, Oregon, says:

"A strange and beautiful tree has lately been found here, which is from one to seven feet high, with a leaf resembling that of the pear, and the trunk and branches those of the orange. The upper side of the leaf is coated with gum, of the consistence of oil, and it is highly fragrant, the odor resembling that of bergamot ripe fruit. It will be highly ornamental and a desirable addition to our gardens, and is an evergreen."

☞ A country youth who had returned from the city, was asked by his anxious father if he had been guarded in his conduct while there.—"Oh, yes!" was the reply. "I was guarded by two policemen part of the time."

Exciting Balloon Ascension

There was a great gathering, June 8th, at the Crystal Palace to see the grand balloon ascension of Mr. Wise, the veteran American Æronaut.—The inflation of the balloon took place in the Palace enclosure, outside the edifice, and was watched with much interest by the multitude.—Punctually at the hour—Barnum is invariably punctual—the ropes were loosed, and Mr. Wise soared away toward the place of clouds. A brisk western breeze was blowing, and he was borne rapidly toward the east. The remainder of his adventures are given in his own words. It will be seen that he had a narrow escape; but he is accustomed to such perils:

I made my one hundred and sixty-third ascension yesterday, from the court yard of the Crystal Palace, at 3½ o'clock. The day was squally, and it was necessary to start with a strong ascending force, so as to overcome the obstacles surrounding me. These created a sensation, when I gave the word "let her go," as thought I had been projected by the force of gunpowder. In a few minutes I entered the clouds. The balloon was still swaying to and fro like a furious elephant. All around me there appeared nothing but a deep twilight, of an ashy hue. In another moment the sun faintly showed its disc through the milky vapor. Reflecting that as I entered the clouds the ocean was lashing the long-bound shore with its angry billows, this time I had the valved open, but not until I had emerged out of the clouds above did I restrain the upward bounds of the wild aerial ship. Above I saw over a patch of clouds the surf of the ocean dashing its spray into the clouds as it were. At last the ascending power was overcome, and the bills that I was throwing overboard kept my company in the descent. When I got below the clouds again I saw Flushing a little eastward. The decent now became rapid, and the strong wind below admonished me of a rough landing. In another moment my grapple took effect. The jar broke some of the rigging, the grappled ripped up the sod, and the balloon bounded several hundred yards. Next the car was dashed forcibly into a ravine, and holded me out. I hold on to the outside. The ballast being also thrown out, gave the ballon increased power. She rose the lenght of the rope, while I was hanging fast to the car. In a moment, the grapple again ripped up the sod, and, seeing my predicament, that of being hauled up, with a moral certainty that I could not save myself to the car long, I made the fearful plunge of at least 10 feet into the salt meadow, knocking out one of my teeth and slightly bruising my jaw. The balloon dashed off, keeping the direction of the island.

Mr. Wise returned to the Palace in due season. The last heard from the baloon was by way of telegraph, saying that it was seen at 4½ P. M., off Bridgeport, scudding rapidly eastward. Of course, all who saw it believed Mr. Wise to be in it, and fears were expressed that he would be lost in the Sound, or carried out to the ocean.

The Chinese in California.

The influx of Chinese in California has become so large, and the habits of the people are so clannish and different from the other inhabitants, that the question is very seriously discussed, what shall be done with such people. Three thousand arrived at San Francisco on their way. The are not like the European emigrants who assimilate in a few years with our own population, and whose manner, religion, habits and modes of thought are nearly identical. The Chinese differ in everything, language, customs, religion, color, without a single connecting link, except the love of gold to bind them in social union with the rest of the population. The women who accompany the Chinese are described as the vilest and lowest of their sex. The first of English they learn is ribaldry and profanity, and they are most offensive in their publicity. An intelligent correspondent, writing to the Boston Post, says unless some means are taken to stay this emigration in a few years there will be in that State a perfect system of aristocracy; a white population ruling the state; with an under-caste of Mongols, deprived of political rights, yet outnumbering their rulers. If the introduction of an inferior and dissimilar race among our own population present such difficulties in California at the present time, how much greater will be the mischief when we come to take into the Union and to citizenship upon an equality with native born citizens one half of Mexico with its best inhabitants but semi-civilized, and its peons scarcely equal to the African slaves in the Spaniards of Cuba not much higher than the Mexican in civilization, and the Sandwich Islander the lowest in the scale. This is a "foreign infusion" from which nothing but mischief and confusion can be expected, and instead of precipitating the evil upon us our rule should endeavor to guard us against it. The harmony of our internal relations requires that some affinities of race, some unity of opinion, some common customs, some habits of self government shall previously exist as a preparatory step to such universal citizenship.

Woman Lawyers.—The New Bedford Mercury after chronicling the fact that one of the female spouters in the late Woman's Rights Convention, said she was studying law, with a view to practice it, says, quite humorously:

"We wish this new Portia all possible success, though we cannot help thinking she would do better with a little further than Lyttleton with a cap than a capias. All women like a declaration, though most prefer another kind to that in a writ. Still our Blackstone in skirts may succeed wonderfully well in courting, and win a silk gown in advance of all her male competitors. The only injustice is that her rhetoric may be heightened and rendered more heavenly by a pretty countenance, the present race of lawyers being by no means beautiful as to the phiz. In that case as Sappho filched the laurels from Pindar, not by the force of her poetry, but by the fairness of her face, so 'Squire Nancy or Polly may carry off decisions from our softhearted judges, when the law and the evidence are both on the side of some long-nosed, ill-favored special pleader in pantaloons.

Divorce Extraordinary.—A woman applied to one of our attorneys not long since, to take steps towards procuring a divorce on account of habitual drunkness and illtreatment in her leigelord. The attorney, who is a strong temperance man, was much impressed with the story of her wrongs, and engaged to commence necessary proceedings at one. A few days ago, the fair plaintiff called again to consult about the case, and at the case, and at the close of the interview inquired how long it would be before the matter was finally consummated. The attorney replied that he sincerely commiserated her situation, and would do all he could to relieve her from it in the shortest possible time. He thought he should be able to do so against the 1st of September, at farthest. "Oh!" said she, her voice betraying the deepest emotion, "cant it be done sooner, for I'm engaged to marry another feller in July!" The attorney cauliflowered.—Lafayette Journal.

Clerical Joke.—In some churches it is customary to separate the men from the women, and on one occasion, a minister being interrupted by loud talking, stopped short, when a woman eager to vindicate her sex, exclaimed: "Your reverence, the noise is not among us."

"So much the better," answered the clergyman "it will be over the sooner."

How true it is.

The Cleveland Plaindealer under the head of "Foreign born," has the following serious, candid and well written article:

"The progress of the "Know-Nothings" is electric. Within the past week alone, they have mounted up with a rapidity unequalled in the whole history of the political past. Every paper on our extensive exchange list, has something to say—for or against—upon the all-absorbing theme. The Whigs and Freesoilers, as a mass, are bidding for the "Know-Nothing" interest, while the Democracy are making one more kind effort to benefit the foreign born in this their hour of distress. Not a single Democratic paper, so far as we know, has attempted either to bully or buy off our adopted citizens. To bully, our party is too courteous; and to buy, too proud. Besides, we are not directly, personally interested in this issue. The Democratic party has survived through numberless crises and eventful epochs. It has lost at times, a phalanx here and a battalion there. Its whole course has been one of vicissitudes and variations; and yet, to day it is the only National Party in the land, the only one of which the observant eye can prophecy anything but utter disruption and defeat.

The democratic party might, with perfect safety, abstain from taking sides of this new question. They might say to foreigners—"This is the result of your own folly. We have told you again and again how it would be. Against our frequent advice you have persisted in building up your Irish and German clans. You have claimed to enjoy all the rights and happy privileges of American citizens, while you wrap up your sympathies and interests in your own nationality. You seem seeking to turn America into Ireland or Germany instead of lending your strength, genius, hopes and aspirations to swell the glory of the American name. Your very policy of isolation has provoked the counter Native American movement. Now take care of yourselves.

Such would be the language of recrimination, but the Democracy are too generous to use it. The Democracy are now prepared, as they ever have been, to work for and with both Irish and Germans, and the representatives of any and all nations on the globe. They only wish in return, a warm and hearty co-operation—not as reluctant allies, but as Democrats all, knowing no country but America, and no ambition but its common welfare.

"Again we ask the Germans and Irish to cast carefully about them—to inquire, 1st, what this Native American movement is? 2d, How long they—only one-fifth of the population—can hold out against it? 3d, What is their best course in this dilemma?

Bank Notes Stolen.—The Bank of Tennessee, as we learn from the Nashville Banner, recently ordered from its engraver a new set of bank notes of various denominations, with red backs. The box containing these notes was received a few days ago, but none of them have yet been put into circulation On Monday a ten dollars bill, red back, with out signature, was presented at the counter of the Bank. It was a genuine note, but as none had been issued suspicions were aroused, and an examination of the contents of the box, which had not previously been opened at the Bank, disclosed the fact, that notes of the denomination of ten dollars, to the amount of $10,000, had been abstracted. None of the other notes were disturbed. The box came from New York, in charge of Adams & Co's Express, and it is thought the notes were abstracted on the steamboat between this city and Nashville. The person who presented the note at the bank, stated that he obtained the note from a negro who had purchased goods from him to the amount of $5 and received $5 in change. The appearance of the negro indicated that he was a steamboat hand. The community should be on their guard against these notes. The Bank will not issue one of the ten dollars red backs unless the whole $10,000 are recovered. Louisville Courier, 15th.

The Decline of Spain.—What a deplorable picture of the decline of Spain is that presented in the following extract from one of its own papers, the Clamor Publico, of Madrid.—

"Under the Moors the population of Spain was thirty millions; it is now fifteen millions. When Granada was conquered, in 1487, it was defended by walls flanked by 1,000 towers. The kingdom, of which it was the capital, was seventy leagues long by thirty broad, and possessed thirty-two cities of the first rank, and ninety-seven of the second. Granada, before its fall in 1487, contained 400,000 inhabitants, of whom 60,000 bore arms. It now contains but 50,000 souls, all counted. The population of the whole kingdom of Granada was three millions. Malaga, in the seventeenth century, contained 80,000 inhabitants; it now possesses only 50,000 inhabitants. Medina del Campo, in the seventeenth century contained 60,000 inhabitants, it now contains 6,000. Merida, at the same epoch, possessed 40,000 inhabitants; it now possesses only 5,000. In the sixteenth centure the diocese of Salamanca had one hundred and twenty-seven cities and villages; it now has thirteen only, Segovia, in 1725, had 5,000 families; now 2,000. Seville, in the seventeenth centure, had a population of 300,000 of which 130,000 were employed in manufactures; it now contains 97,000 souls, all told Toledo, in the fifteent century, had 200,000 inhabitants; it now has 15,000. Valence, which in year 1600, counted a population of 600,000, now hardly numbers 60,000. In 1778 there were counted 1511 abandoned villages in Spain, and the number has been increasing from that time to this."

☞ Great actions and striking occurrences, having excited a temporary admiration, often, pass away and are forgotten, because they leave no lasting results, affecting the prosperity of communities. Such is frequently the fortune of the most brilliant military achievements. Of the ten thousand battles which have been fought, of all the fields fertilized by carnage; of the banners which have been bathed in blood; of the warriors who have hoped that they have risen from the field of conquest to a glory as bright and durable as the stars, how few that continue long to interest mankind! The victory of yesterday is reversed by the defeat of to-day; the star of military glory, rising like a meteor, like a meteor has fallen; disgrace and disaster hang on the heels of conquest and renown; victor and vanquished presently pass away to oblivion, and the world holds on its course with the loss only of so many lives and so much treasure.—[Daniel Webster.

New Mode of Fencing.—It is said that a gentleman residing in Walsor, Vt., has introduced into that region a method of fencing, which for cheapness or durability and efficiency, can hardly be surpassed. He procures stakes of a suitable wood, five feet in length, and steps the lower portion of them in a solution of blue vitriol—one pound of vitriol to forty of water. This renders them almost indestructible by the natural process of decay. He then drives the stakes into the ground at a distance of eight inches apart, bringing the tops into a straight line, and nailing upon them a narrow strip of board, using one nail upon each stake. Among the advantages of the fence thus made, apart from its cheapness, it is said that "cattle and sheep can't get through it, horses will not jump it, hogs will go a good distance round rather than climb over it, and a lazy man can't set in the shade of it."

A New Volume of the Sentinel

Will be commenced on Saturday, the 8th of July next, and we hope as many of our readers as can will continue to pay up by that time and take a new start. It will be such a novelty to some of them to settle up, that we feel quite a philanthropic desire to be instrumental in furnishing the rare delight.

We design enlarging the Sentinel so as to give our readers nearly one half more news than at present, and make it THE LARGEST PAPER IN THE STATE. The enlargement will be made as soon as we can complete the necessary arrangements and procure a NEW PRESS of corresponding dimensions.

To meet the heavy outlay we shall naturally incur in these improvements we confidently hope our friends will interest themselves in extending our circulation. There are but few who could not, if they would try, induce at least one neighbor or friend to subscribe, and we hereby appoint each subscriber to act as a committee of one for this purpose.

As a further inducement to new subscribers, we will furnish the Sentinel to Clubs at the following reduced rates:

Five copies, and one to the person getting up the club, for $7.50; Ten copies, and one do. for $12.50

Payment in all cases to be made in advance.

The melting of our Roller last week accounts for the delay of our paper.

Whig, Abolition, and Know Nothing Meeting.

It is perhaps known by a few that on last Saturday, a meeting composed of the above factions was held at the Court House, or, as since denominated by one of their clan, "the buzzards nest," in opposition to the Nebraska bill. Notwithstanding their flaming handbills posted up throughout the county, that there would be a grand mass convention of the people of all parties on the occasion, and that the eminent H. P. Biddle, Shuyler Colfax and others, would be in attendance and address those assembled, they were unsuccessful in their attempts to deceive the honest public. It was truly a whig, abolition, and know-nothing concern throughout. As a matter of curiosity, a few democrats convened with them until their meeting was organized, the result of which so fully developed their iniquitous designs, that they left them to their own glory. Whereupon after the report of the committee on resolutions, whose character are in direct antagonism with the letter and spirit of the Constitution of the U. S., Horace P. Biddle, alias Samuel Brenton, made a tremendous effort to show that the Bill introduced by the Hon. S. A. Douglass, Chairman of the Committee on Territories was a violation of a solemn compact, and that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was a total disregard of "national faith." Query, whether this gentleman recollects that when he was in Congress, and where he would like to be again, that this same bill in substance was introduced, and that, in his letter of May last, said that a bill for the organization of said Territory should be passed. And now, since the same has been passed, he comes out with hurling invectives against it and those who voted in favor thereof. "Consistency, thou art a jewel!" but where art thou now? Allowing us the privilege of speaking plainly, in our opinion, a greater political demagogue and hypocrite was never found in any community, than this same Samuel Brenton. On former occasions he has lauded the dear people to the skies and proclaimed their inherent rights; but now, thinking to make a strike for Congress, he opposes the great and grand principle contained in the Bill, which provides that the people shall determine for themselves their own domestic concerns, whether in States or Territories. The motives of this gentleman are in nowise past finding out. His former course and total disregard for the common proprieties of life are yet remembered against him and will in due time be revealed.

Next, Schuyler Colfax, alias Charles Case, was introduced and consumed some time in denouncing Douglas and others who gave their support to the Bill. He would that the people should believe that these are times of great peril, and that, because of the passage of this Bill, a great outrage has been committed on the rights of the American people. What a lamentable state of affairs, that the people should deign to regulate their own internal affairs as to them seemeth best! No, he would that the vexed question of slavery should be continued in Congress, and create sectional difficulties, even, should our cherished Union be endangered thereby. He, like all the rest of abolitionists, is pregnant with the one idea, and when the question is sought to be placed with the people, where it of right belongs, then the sad lamentation that we are to have more slave Territories, without any cogent reasoning, is heralded loud and long with the view of exciting the sympathies of the people. We regret to have to say that the action of the abolitionists on the subject of slavery has, instead of producing the amelioration of the oppressed, tended to rivet and bind closer their fetters. And now, since a territorial bill for Nebraska and Kansas has been passed, confiding in the intelligence of the people the right to govern themselves and regulate their domestic institutions, the cry is for repeal, and "ceaseless vigilance" until the same is accomplished. This is the only means left for the abolitionists to introduce into Congress again the question of slavery, and to sow their seed of corruption where its withering curse will be their condemnation forever. No, rather than have our confederacy rest in peace on this vexed question, these men would witness the dying agonies of her free insitutions. What ingratitude!

Lastly, Abby Kelly, Alias Pop-gun Smith, entertained the audience in her usual manner, that is, she delivered one of her stereotyped essays which being interspersed with poetical effusions from Shakespear, Burns, and Lord Byron, of course, had great force and was very conclusive in showing that the Nebraska Bill was a "Swindle" and outrage upon the people. This Lady has been exceedly anxious to bring herself into public notoriety during her short stay in our midst; we regret that her ambitious motives has led her astray from the path of virtue. But it is to true that an excited ambition has caused men as well as women to depart from rectitude, honor and common decency. This distinguished lady made some pretentions to Democracy on her arrival amongst us, but ascertaining the fact, that the rules and regulations of the Democratic party prohibited Mongrels and demagogues, she retreated and sought favor of the liberal and polite organizations, regardless of principles whose spheres seem quite natural and congenial to her feelings and desires.

The meeting consisting principally of heart-sickened politicians, appointed W. S. Smith, alias, Abby Kelley, Samuel Brenton, alias, H. P. Biddle, Martin Bell, Christian Parker and Charles Case, alias, Schuyler Colfax, a central Committee for the purpose of organizing Township Anti-Nebraska associations.

We admonish the people of the different townships to beware of these political renegates and disorganizers, and especially is our admonition addressed to Democrats for it is their boasted design to ensnare as many of you as posible,—Countenance them nor their operations in no respect, but leave them entirely to their own destruction and the prosecution of their unholy and unrighteous designs. Then when the evil hours shall come, they alone will be responsible.

The request made in their last resolution, that the City papers publish the proceedings of their meeting, is certainly one of the coolest presumptions we have ever known or heard of. What!! ask us to publish the proceedings of a meeting bearing a lie on their face. Nay verily, we never have and never shall we hope, be guilty of knowingly deceiving the honest masses by the publication in our columns of falsehoods or evil communications.

Position of Mr. Chamberlain.

As the time is drawing near when the Democrats of this Congressional district will nominate their candidate for the next Congress, it may be proper to examine the condition Hon. E. M. Chamberlain, our present Representative, occupies in respect to the Nebraska Bill. He, as our readers are aware, was opposed to the bill; and though he did not vote against it on its final passage, having been suddenly called home by the serious indisposition of a member of his family, he does not wish that fact to be construed into a change of his opinion on the subject. He was compelled to leave Washington before the vote was taken, but he paired off with a friend of the bill, so the result was the same as if both had remained, and voted. Had he been in Washington, he would undoubtly have voted against the bill.

His opposition to it was, however, honest and straight-forward, like all his other public acts. He was no party to any of the factious movements of the minority, tending to delay public business, and he voted against some of the motions introduced for that purpose. Though many (perhaps the greater portion) of his constituents would have preferred to see him vote for the bill, yet the purity of his motives being unquestionable, and his opposition manifested only in the most honorable manner, there is nothing in his conduct calculated to diminish the unbounded confidence with the democracy of this district has always reposed in him.

The bill having passed, and the question being settled, he bows to the decision, in accordance with the democratic rule that the majority should govern. He acquiesces in the result, and we are authorized to say, that he will strenuously oppose any attempt to renew the agitation, and give no countenance to the efforts of fanatical abolitionists and enemies of the administration seeking to repeal the bill. This being his position, we can see no impropriety in any, even the most ardent friends of the Nebraska Bill, supporting him for renomination; but on the contrary think much good would result from it, and that it would have a beneficial effect in allaying irritation, and healing any dissention that may have unhappily arisen in our ranks on this subject. If the friends of the bill acquiesce in this course, our party will present an united and unbroken front, and our success will be certain.

Of Mr. Chamberlain's fitness for the station it is unnecessary to speak. We may however be permitted to add, that no man in Washington maintains a better reputation as an able, honest faithful and industrious representative than he does. He is looked upon with respect by all—whigs, democrats, Nebraska men, and anti-Nebraska. He is an honor to his constituents and his state and in our opinion we should act wisely in renominating him.

The Know Nothings.

Two weeks ago we published their platform, that the public might read and thereby comprehend the objects they seek to accomplish. Their Society is composed of Whigs, Freesoilers, ranting Abolitionists, Spiritualits, Women's rights men, Disorganizers Demagogues, Fusionits, and all the host of corrupt factions and factionists that pollute our land and desecrate the name of freedom. Failing to succeed under the aforesaid organizations in times past, or to establish for themselves that political aggrandizement or reputation which none, but men or parties of principle and integrity of purpose are deserving of, or capable of inheriting and possessing, are "fired with indignation" and in the "gaul of bitterness and the bonds of iniquity" have Sworn eternal hostility to the advancement and triumph of Democratic principles. And in order to perpetrate and effect their infernal designs, assemble behind the curtain of infamy, with their lights under a bushel, then and there to Know nothing but inveterate condemnation of popular Sovereignty, Foreigners and Catholics. Shameful that any set of men that have breathed the air of American freedom and enjoyed the blessings of her Institutions, should thus secretly and wilfully attempt to weaken or destroy her pillars.

They talk about American Slavery and its evil consequences, and would that the world should know their heart renderings and soul stirring sympathies; and yet, when the poor foreigners who have been subjected to the power of Kings and Potentates come to the "land of the free" and the "Home of the brave," rather than greet them a happy welcome to our shores, they propose to meet them with "bloody hands" and laws of disfranchisement. Yes they would preclude from the right of citizenship the very individuals who cultivate the refuse territory of our land and in a few years make the waste places, healthy, beautiful, and lovely habitations; and the very persons, too, who construct the internal improvements that bring us in almost immediate proximity with the remotest corners of the Earth!—Yes, disfranchise the honest and noble foreigners who assist in supporting our Government, and aid in sustaining her Institutions in times of peace, as well as when attacked by invading foes! Yes, this band of pirates would prevent them from the exercise of political, social, and religious privileges, and, at the same time, make them subservient and amenable to all her laws. They deny the poor foreigners the rights they claim for themselves. This is what they term consistency and the standard of human excellence in their hidden go seek operations. These things in the Shape of human beings, who Know nothing now, will Know something when the result of the approaching elections are known. The "poor ignorant and degraded foreigners" as they call them, will awaken them from their stupidity to a just sense of propriety when they speak at the Ballot Boxes.

Our neighbor of the "Times" seems disposed to take exceptions to the remark in our former article on this subject, that "no man can be recognized as a Democrat who belongs to the Society" of Know Nothings. Now we repeat without hesitation that no Democrat can consistently, or will so degrade himself as to enter into any Secret conclave for the purpose of political action. And we venture a further remark; that no man of honest purpose, having the "stability of our "times" at heart, can with justice and propriety, or will connect himself with any such a disloyal Society.

Deplorable indeed that any man, or any set of men should be so steeped in political sin as to secretly plot the destruction of principles whereon rest the perpetuity of Americans Institutions and American Freedom. Pirates persist on in your nefarious schemes if you will, and ere long you will have done enough to cause your Ancient political Fathers to burst assunder the cements of their tombes and rise up among you not to bless you but to curse you with a traitors lot and a traitors name.

Hear us!—For several weeks past we have been receiving letters containing advertisements of Lotteries, Gift Concerts, &c., with requests to insert them in our Paper, and as our compensation, to take tickets in said schemes.

Now, we wish it expressly understood that we have no sympathy for "gouges" or "gougers," and, when we have so far lost our sense of duty to our patrons as to burden our colums with such trash and deceiving inducements, we trust that there will be some other avocation that will be worthy our attention and practice. We are aware of the ingenuity of such men as are engaged in the Lottery and Gift schemes throughout many portions of our country. We know too that, by their flattery, they have filled their coffers with the hard earnings of the welter ng poor. We know too that many families of respectability have come to want in consequence of the fraud and deceptions practiced upon them by these men who are to indolent to gain an honest lively-hood by the sweat of their brow. It is high time that the public would disregard their glowing promises which are seldom if ever fulfilled, discountenance their every effort, and thereby drive them to habits of industry and honesty of purpose. We take pleasure in giving advertisements insertion in our paper when they are designed for the public good or the advancement of proper motives. But none others will receive our consideration.

The fourth of July.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Germans of Allen County celebrated the 78th Anniversary of American Independence in a truly patriotic manner. We were much gratified to see so many noble spirits engage and participate in the commemoration of that glorious day that gave us political, civil, and religious liberty: and we trust that the virtues and excellencies thereof will ever prove a sufficient inducement for the faithful observance of that great day throughout all generations. The following persons acted as officers of the day: President, Henry Rudisill; Vice President, Dr. C. Schmitz; Marshals, Maj. L. Wolkie, Wm. Borger, H. Denor, J. Trautman, F. Nirdlinger, Mr. Leichtenheim, Mr Beidelsheimer, H. Strong, F. Rug, G. Kitzman, F. Wolkie, F. Mayer, J. Schukman, J. Mayer, J. Greabel, H. Geiger, and C. Tressell.

Committee of arrangement, S. Odendahl, H. R. Schwegman, C. Bonnett, Mr. Cramroy, R. Trentman, C. Tressell, W. Wingenrode, F. Graffe, C. Muhler, H. Orff, H Strong, and C. Nill.

When assembled in Ewing's Grove, the Declaration of Independence was read by H. Odendahl, Oration in German delivered by Mr. Cramroy, and in English by H. J. Rudisill. These gentleman did credit to themselves and great honor to the country which we all cherish with pride, and are willing to defend under any and all circumstances from invasion. The memory of those who sacrificed their lives on the Altar of liberty for our peaceful enjoyment, will, we hope, ever be treasured in our minds, and their virtues ever commemorated.

Pic-Nic.

On the Fourth a party of our citizens convened in a Grove about six miles from the City, where they were addressed in an appropriate manner by Mr. Merriman Esq., after which they partook of refreshments gotten up by the dear Ladies, who do all things well and just to the tastes of the Gentlemen. As far as we are advised, they had a merry good time.

Our thanks are due Hon. E. M. CHAMBERLAIN, for parts 1st. 2d and 3d of the President's Messages and accompanying Documents.

The warm Weather.—For several days past, the rays of the sun have had a prostrating effect upon the physical System, and the force and effect thereof are in no degree diminished at this time. The months of July and August are usually oppressively hot, so much so, as to often bring about diseases, which are sometimes of a serious character. As a barier to the incurring of such, we commend cleanliness, moderate exercise, regular habits, and a light and wholesome diet; refraining entirely from the use of the variety of luxurious, yet green vergitables that are in market at this season of the year; check the cravings of the appetite until they have ripened into maturity, and then, their use will tend to the promotion of health than otherwise. If you abstain from the violation of nature's laws, you will seldom, if ever, need to call a Physician or suffer the pangs of disease.

Dr. C. R. Baily, of the United States navy, now stationed at the Pensacola navy-yard, has written a letter to the editor of the Pensacola Gazette, in which he states:

"There is on the farm of Mr. Willis Sturtevant, a mineral spring that has, like many a gem of immense value, been overlooked for many years. It is a sulphur chalybeate, and, if I am not much mistaken, very little inferior, if not equal to, the celebrated Saratoga Springs in medicinal qualities. This will be of immense value to the citizens of Pensacola, Mobile, and New Orleans.—Being but four miles distant from the city of Pensacola, invalids from the State of Alabama and Lousiana will have every advantage of safe and speedy travel, by water to Pensacola, and thence four miles by omnibus to the spring."

From the Washington Union.

A New Fanaticism.

While the people of Boston are doubtless as loyal to the constitution as any other similar number of American citizens, they are cursed with some of the most desperate fanatics in the Union. These reckless agitators care little what it is they oppose, so that the cause they persecute is good. Thus we have seen them insulting the remains of their own brave son, the gallant Col Lincoln, who fell in defence of his country's flag; and next we have them arrayed in violent hostility to Mr. Webster, who had served them with pre-eminent distinction in the national legislature, but who was finally repudiated because he would not repudiate the constitution. The three demonstrations against fugitive slave law recall also the organization to resist the order of the Post Office Department some years ago, and the attack in Boston harbor upon the frigate Constitution which bore the figure-head of Jackson. It is somewhat in contrast with the pretences of Boston fanaticism in favor extreme freedom—in favor of perfect equality—in favor of the obliteration of the distinctions between whites and blacks—that while they (the fanatics) are ready to hang, draw, and quarter all who will not resist any law that guaranties to a southern man his rights to his property, they themselves do not hesitate, at the same, time, to hunt down a white man as if he were an incarnate fiend, simply because he may happen to be an Irishman or a Catholic!

There is now growing into evanescent prominence and power a party which rejoices in the name of "know-nothings," and, judging from the subjoined article from its Boston organ, takes chief encouragement and creed from Boston fanaticism. We shall not be astonished to see it growing into strength, and for a brief period, sweeping other parties into the minority. Such is the history of all similar paroxysms. Such was antiism, of which, by the way "know-nothingism" is one of the direct results. Such was anti-masonry; and such is the periodical influence secured to the anti-slavery organization in certain quarters in the East and West.

A religious movement entirely, assuming possession of the political field, and appealing to every element of bigotry as a means of success is a new idea in the way of parties, even in a country where opinion and where action are so comparatively unrestrained. We have seen this argument controling bodies of men before; but this is the first time that a religious phrensy has been publicly invoked in support of a political party. Even the native-Americans have denied it with much indignation. Now it is boldly disclosed to the world as one of the chief animating causes of the new political combination: indeed, not only is the organization based upon hostility to all the Catholics of the Mary, but also upon hostility to all adopted citizens.

We have more than once referred to the fact that all these fanatical organizations are in their nature and in their inception intended to break down the democratic party. This is an additional reason, if other considerations of duty did not appeal to us in the same direction, why democrats should unhesitatingly oppose and expose them. On the other hand, the whigs, especially in the northern States, have rarely halted or hesitated in uniting with these organizations of the day, when, by so doing, they could obtain an occasional advantage. The consequence has been the frequent defeat of the democracy, standing first, as that party has done, to the great principles which are irreconcilably adverse to all factions, bigoted, or sectional parties. No consideration of loss or of defeat, however, has controlled the democracy, or deterred it in the discharge of its obligations to principle. It has never wavered from the first, but has consistently denounced and finally defeated all the schemes of demagogues and fanatics, whether in politics or in religion.

In this connexion, and at this moment, it is due to the truth that we should admonish all adopted citizens against taking part themselves in sectional or exclusive parties. Such movements are being advocated in different parts of the Union by those who are, on the other hand, opposed by nativist and religious combinations. The practice is most objectionable, no matter where it exists, and it will be adding fuel to the flame if, while fanatics on one hand, seek to assail any portion of the people for their places of birth or their religious views, they may be able to justify their own excesses by pointing out organizations of a similar character among them to whom they are adverse—and especially if they can say that these organizations existed before their own know-nothing" party was established. There is but one party in this country which is the natural, traditional, and active and existing foe of all bigotry, proscription, and fanaticism but one that is strong enough to resist the tyranny of momentary excitements and reckless mobs created by sudden popular disputes—and that is the democratic party. It is the only great organization that can afford to be defeated in such a cause. It is the only one which proves its sincerity by its sacrifices. Let those who are interested in knowing this fact lay it well and closely to heart.

New Hampshire Legislature, &c. CONCORD, June 28.—The debate on the anti-Nebraska resolutions was continued in the house to-day, but without final action.

All the banking bills were matured, and passed the house to-day.

CONCORD, June 29. This being the day assigned for another trial to elect a United States senator for New Hampshire, the balloting was resumed this morning. The first balloting resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 303; necessary for a choice, 162. John S. Wells had 150; Joel Eastman, 79; Tappan, 16, Thompson, [Morrison is probably meant,] 52; scattering, 6.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

CONCORD, June 29.—John S. Wells was to-day elected United States senator for the short term on the part of the senate.

BUFFALO.

Dreadful Accident at Niagara Falls.—Buffalo City Bonds.—June 28.—A terrible accident occurred this morning at Niagara Falls. A little girl, five years of age, who was playing on the top of the precipice known as the Devil's Hole, approached too near the edge and overbalanced. For an instant she clung to the bushes, but, losing her hold before assistance could reach her, fell into the gulf, a distance of 150 feet. She still survives, but her recovery is impossible.

The interest on the Buffalo city bonds, due today in New York, would not be paid, in consequence of an injunction on the council. The bonds due on the 29th will not be paid for a similar reason.

The crops in Maryland.—The wheat harvest has come suddenly upon us. The rust within a week or ten days past has made havoc in the crops, and hastened the time of reaping. A gentleman near Cambridge, who expected to realize a crop of 2,500 bushels, informs us that he estimates his loss by the rust at 1,000 bushels. Cambridge Chronicle, 25th.

In South Carolina.—The Abbeville Banner says the crops in every portion of the district are the finest that have greeted the eyes of our good planters for many a long year.

In Florida.—The indications at present are that a most beautiful crop is to reward the toils of the Farmers of Florida in the coming harvest. Not for years has the crop been so promising as now.—Tallahassee Journal.

In Lousiana.—Our planters are complaining of the wet weather and the destruction of the crops. The cane is suffering; the corn and cotton are almost a total loss. Grass gaining awfully.—Opelousas Courier.

☞ New one dollar counterfeit notes on the Jamestown branch of the Indiana State Stock Bank have made their appearance. They are stamped with various numbers.—The imitations are good, but the paper is coarser than the genuine and not so well engraved. The shading is also darker. The vignette is a wood scene, and the mark on the chopped end of the fallen log is much longer than the genuine.

Another new State.—A bill to provide for the admission of Oregon into the Union as a State, has already been reported in the House of Representatives, and the Legislature of Oregon have taken the preliminary steps towards calling a convention to form a constitution. This is looking to the admission of Oregon as a State in 1855, by which time it is presumed there will be the requisite amount of population in the territory to entitle it to the new honors to which it is now aspiring. The Oregonians are those calculating upon a rapid growth by accession of population from the Atlantic States, which may not be fulfilled.—The emigration overland this season does not appear to be very large. When the census of 1850 was taken the population of Oregon was 13,294. A territorial census recently taken shows it to have a population amounting to over 40,000, or an increase of near 27,000 in three years, or about 118 per cent. This is in the ratio of 46 per cent per annum, which would be entirely inadequate to swell the aggregate of population to over 90,000 in a single year. However, we presume the Oregonians think there is nothing to be by agitating the subject, and perhaps they think also that as the admission of a new State is always delayed unnecessarily, they will have their delay beforehand.

Editorial Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, June 25th.

Congress is now quite diligent, and making good progress with business. It will probably adjourn early in August. A proposition is before both Houses, and will probably pass, providing for the commencement of the sessions, hereafter, in October, instead of December as at present. This will give more time for the short session, and enable Congress to get through in the long one, without having to sit during the hot weather.

The further consideration of the Pacific Railroad bill has been postponed until December next, to give time for the reception of the reports of the Engineers who have been surveying the various routes. The Minnesota Railroad bill has passed the House by a majority of 21 votes, which gives great hopes to the friends of the other railroads, as an evidence that the temper of the House is not hostile to the policy of making grants to Railroads. I still consider the prospects of our great road—the Fort Wayne, Laron, & Platte Valley Airline—encouraging, although I much fear we shall have to encounter the uncompromising hostility of the entire Iowa delegation, who appear so much wedded to their own pet projects and local interests, that we have not as yet been able to make any terms with them. I think it doubtful whether they can defeat us; but the attempt will inevitably ensure the loss of their own bill. If Iowa gets no grants this season, she can thank her own delegation for the failure. If she wants any hereafter, she will have to send men of more liberal views to Congress.

Among the notables here, I may mention the celebrated Capt. Rynders of New York, who has recently married a young, pretty, and rich little Quakeress, and brought her here on a bridal tour. The redoubtable captain is not near so formidable a looking man as might be expected from his reputation. But perhaps the humanizing influence of his friendly little helpmate may have softened down his rugged nature. I saw him the other evening, while the Marine Band was playing at the Capitol grounds, looking on a group of young children, with a most benignant and paternal aspect, and from the occasional glances he stole at his amiable young wife, and her modest blushes, I conjectured he was looking forward to the time when he would have such a group round his own hearth. May his brightest anticipations be realized.

Hon. Jesse D. Bright, our Senator, is again at his post and busily attending to his duties. I was pleased to see that he had entirely recovered from his late severe illness, and looked as hearty, whole-souled, and good humored as ever—a pleasure in which I have no doubt all my readers will share. He is extremely popular here, and wields great influence in the Senate.

The Nebraska and Kansas appointments have been sent in to the Senate, but are not yet ratified. It is generally believed the following are the happy men:

For Nebraska.—Wm. O. Butler, of Kentucky, Governor; Cummings, editor of Keokuk Dispatch, Iowa, Secretary; Ferguson of Mich. Chief Judge; Bradley of Indiana, and Hardon of Georgia, Associate Judges; Mark Izard of Arkansas, Marshal: Esterbrook of Wisconsin District Attorney.

For Kansas.—Andrew H. Reeder of Pa. Governor; Woodson of Va. Secretary; Johnson of Ohio, Chief judge; Brown of Md. and Ellmore of Alabama, Associate Judges; Isacks of Louisiana, District Attorney; Donelson of Illinois Marshall.

It is generally thought that Gen. Butler will not accept, and that Mr. Manypenny of Ohio, present Commissioner of Indian Affairs, will be appointed Gov. of Nebraska.

FOREIGN NEWS.

One week later News.

The America arrived this morning with dates to the 25th. It is reported that the Turks have driven the Russians from Silistria,

The Russians have been surprised and beaten in of the mountain passes by the Circassians.

The Austrians were on their march through Bohemia to the Eastern frontier.

All the Austrian garrisons are being reinforced, and all the disposable troops were being concentrated in Bohemia.

The Death of Mustapha Pacha in Silistria is confirmed. He was killed by a grenadier. He had repulsed a heavy brida from Prince Paskiewitch.

It is announced that Admiral Napier destroyed and captured several gun-boats and ships on the 30th of May, in the Baltic. 15,000 marines had been landed at Marion.

Prince Paskiewitch had received orders from St. Petersburgh to retire beyond the Pruth.

The Turks had driven the Russians out of Turkai, and have also strengthened their garison at Rustchuck.

Operations against Silistria have been suspended, since which Paskiewitch was on his way to cross the Pruth.

These events had caused a great deal of excitement at St. Petersburg.

ENGLAND.—In the House of Lords an animated discussion had taken place on the present state of affairs, in regard to the war.

☞ As a Spring and Summer Medicine, Carter's Spanish Mix ure stands pre-eminent above all others. Its singularly efficacious action on the blood; its strengthening and vivifying qualities, its tonic action on the liver; its tendency to drive all humors to the surface, thereby cleansing the system according to Nature's own prescription; its harmless, and at the same time extraordinary good effects, and the number of cures testified to by many of the most respectable citizens of Richmond, Va., and elsewhere, must be conclusive evidence that there is no humbug about it.

The trial of a single bottle will satisfy the most sceptical of its benefits.

Joy for the Invalid.—Persons afflicted with any diseases arising from a disordered liver, stomach, nervous debility, dyspepsia, or liver complaint, should try Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.—They scarcely ever fail effecting a cure in a very short time. Be careful to procure the genuine, and be not deceived by the quack medicines which are advertised. We have seen stronger testimony in favor of the above article, than any other prepared medicine now before the public.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the lungs.—We refer to "Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor of Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavities of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—New York Dutchman of Jan. 14th.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

It is an undeniable fact that the rights of women, by your existing laws, are unprotected and abused. It has also recently been discovered that women have a right to protect their GLOSSY RINGLETS. This can be done by using EMERSON'S AMERICAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, a sure cure for BALDNESS, and to prevent the Hair from Falling. See Circulars to be had of the Agents. Price $1 00 in large Bottles.

The Great Purifier of the Blood.

NOT A PARTICLE OF MERCURY IN IT.

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or the Blood.

This valuable Medicine, which has become celebrated for the number of extraordinary cures through its agency, has induced the proprietors, at the urgent request of their friends, to offer it to the public, which they do with the utmost confidence in its virtues and wonderful curative properties. The following certificates, selected from a large number, are, however, stronger testimony than the mere word of the proprietors; and are all from gentlemen well known in their localities, and of the highest respectability, many of them residing in the city of Richmond, Va.

P. BOYDEN, Esq., of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, known every where, says he has seen the Medicine called Carter's Spanish Mixture administered in over a hundred cases, in nearly all the diseases for which it is recommended, with the most astonishingly good results. He says it is the most extraordinary medicine he has ever seen.

AGUE AND FEVER—GREAT CURE.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Tonics advertised, but all without any permanent relief. At last I tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say I have had neither Chills or Fevers since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ever reached my case. JOHN LONG.
Beaver Dam, near Richmond, Va.

C. B. LUCK, Esq., now in the city of Richmond, and for many years in the Post Office, has such confidence in the astonishing efficacy of Carter's Spanish Mixture, that he has bought upwards of 50 bottles, which he has given away to the afflicted. Mr. Luck says he has never known it to fail when taken according to directions.

Dr. MINGE, a practicing Physician, and formerly of the City Hotel, in the city of Richmond, says he has witnessed in a number of instances the effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture which were most truly surprising. He says in a case of Consumption, dependent on the Liver, the good effects were wonderful indeed.

SAMUEL M. DRINKER, of the firm of Drinker & Morris, Richmond, was cured of Liver Complaint of 8 years standing, by the use of two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

GREAT CURE OF SCROFULA.—The Editors of the Richmond Republican had a servant employed in their press room, cured of violent Scrofula, combined with Rheumatism, which entirely disabled him from work. Two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture made a perfect cure of him, and the Editors, in a public notice, say they "cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted with any disease of the blood."

STILL ANOTHER CURE OF SCROFULA.—I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrofula by Carter's Spanish Mixture. I consider it truly a valuable medicine. JAMES M. TAYLOR, Conductor on the R. F. & P. R. R. Co., Richmond, Va.

SALT RHEUM OF 20 YEARS STANDING CURED.

Mr. JOHN THOMPSON, residing in the city of Richmond, was cured by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum, which he had nearly 20 years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure. Mr. Thompson is a well known merchant in the city of Richmond, Va., and his cure is most remarkable.

WM. A. MATTHEWS, of Richmond, had a servant cured of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He says he cheerfully recommends it, and considers it an invaluable medicine.

RICHARD WEST, of Richmond, was cured of Scrofula, and what Physicians called confirmed Consumption, by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

EDWIN BURTON, commissioner of the revenue, says he has seen the good effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture in a number of Syphilitic cases, and says it is a perfect cure for that horrible disease.

WM. G. HARWOOD, of Richmond, cured of Old Sores and Ulcers, which disabled him from walking. Took a few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and was enabled to walk without a crutch, in a short time permanently cured.

Celebrated German Bitters,

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

No. 120 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of Invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

"The Bitters mixture is, without doubt, the greatest medicine extant for diseases of the Liver and Bowels. A stubborn case of Chronic Diarrhea has come under our notice, wherein the patient has exhausted the Materia Medica of the different schools of medicine, with no apparent benefit. He was induced to use these bitters, and a few bottles of them entirely cured him. Many such cases we could refer to. We hope our readers will recollect this great restorative, should they be so unfortunate as to require its use. Dr. Jackson possesses the original unpublished receipt of Dr. Hoofland, and he prepares this medicine with great care. Those purchasing should call at his store, or see that his name is written upon the wrapper outside, and blown in the bottles, as imitations of all good articles are common."—Philadelphia Democrat (German).

MEDICATED INHALATION.

A New Method.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTISS HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the city of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession.—[See certificates in hands of Agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine.

Here is a case:

ASTHMA CURED.

Brooklyn, N.Y., Dec 20th, 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma: for the last I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing and my sufferings were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is, TRY IT.

MAGARET EASTON.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

New York, Dec 27th, 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John's, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor, had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I take the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

MOFFITT'S

Patent Grain Separator,

I WISH to call the attention of those interested to my eight horse power "GRAIN SEPARATOR," which, after having been for the past two years in successful operation, has proven itself to be greatly superior, in every particular, to all other now in use.

The first premium was awarded to this machine at the Ohio State Fair, held in Dayton—also, at the World's Exhibition in New York, in 1853—the only places at which it has been exhibited in this country.

At a practical test of this Separator in competition with the best of those made in England, last season, it received the highest commendations of the press, and of all the leading Agriculturists in that country.

I will have a large number ready for the coming crop, made of the best material, and warranted to do good work.

I am also making a number of my small Separators for the convenience of those who wish to have their own machines. They are driven by two horses on an endless chain, or by four in a lever power. They thresh and clean the grain perfectly, and deliver it in bags. Its weight is 750 pounds.

N. B. References in abundance can be given if desired.

If will have fifty of Crawford's Patent Clover Hullers ready for the Clover Crop. This Huller is undoubtedly the best now in use.

R. R. R. REMEDIES

R. R. R.—What do the Sick Require? To those who think,—If sick, if suffering the tortures of pain, or afflicted with long illness, the invalids constant hope and most fervent desire is to be relieved and cured of the distressing ailment, that renders the existence so miserable, in the quickest possible time. On this principle the R. R. R. REMEDIES are founded. Instant Relief from Pain, Quick Cure of Diseases, Speedy Restoration to Health, is the great platform on which the R. R. R. Theory is founded.

The R. R. R. REMEDIES are worthy of the age. They instantly relieve the bed-ridden from the most excruciating pains, and quickly free the afflicted from the most obstinate and serious maladies, infusing new life and vigor in the shattered and bruised body, and renew each member and organ of the human system with strength and power.

The R. R. R. REMEDIES consist of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT, and RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is for the instant relief of the sufferer from pain, and to check and arrest the progress of diseases; to disinfect animal, malarious, and infectious poisons, thus protecting whoever uses it against all poisonous infection from contagion, and from sudden attacks of Cholera, Pneumonia, Ship Fever, Fever and Ague, &c. Likewise for the effectual and radical removal of all pains and diseases of the Joints, Limbs, Nerves, &c.

Its first action is to remove the pain, (hence its usefulness in Neuralgic cases;) its second, to repair and heal, as in the case of a cut, or wound. If the Relief is applied after the first little smarting is over, the pain is extinguished, and the work of reparation now commences. But if the Relief is not applied, there are many chances to one that the pain will continue and an inflammation be set up and instead of a single incised wound we have inflammation—disease to contend with. Besides its direct power over pain, the Ready Relief is the most effectual and convenient "counter irritant" that is known to the medical world.

If there be a congestion or heaping up of the blood in any particular part, occasioning pain and threatening inflammation or disease, as Sore Throat, Lumbago or pains in the loins, Pleuritic congestion, &c., the Relief will be found the most invaluable curative. By applying it over the adjacent parts, the blood is drawn away from the affected parts, the congestion dissipated, and the pain removed at once. Let any who may doubt this but make the trial.—Now, these two properties, its power over pain and its "counter irritant," render it the most valuable remedy for Diarrhoea; and although not an astringent in the popular meaning of the term, well be stops the pain and arrests the discharge of the most frightful Diarrhea and Cholera in short time.

DISINFECTANT.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the most safe and powerful disinfectant in the world—as such, it is a most effectual cure and positive preventive of

FEVER AND AGUE.

So with other fevers and other malarious diseases. Ten or twenty drops taken internally, in a little water, will protect the system against any attacks from infectious and malarious poisons.

PNEUMONIA,

whether Typhoid or Bilious, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF given internally and applied over the surface of the body, and the bowels regulated and kept soluble with RADWAY'S REGULATORS, the patient will soon be out of danger, and speedily restored to health. If the R. R. R. Remedies are given they will save the life of the patient.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT

is the second of the R. R. R. Remedies. It is for the cure of Chronic diseases that have been lingering in the system for years.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO ALL AFFLICTED WITH CHRONIC DISEASES.

For the present, then, let us pass to the consideration of the RESOLVENT, the second of the three R. R. R. Medicines.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT is for the cure of Chronic Diseases, or inflammation that is kept alight or fed by some sustaining cause; for the Chronic tells us that inflammation is a slow unquelled combustion and its cause is a deposit resulting from the inflammation whilst it is in an active or acute condition, for all diseases is at one time acute before it becomes chronic. If a person has Chronic Rheumatism, it is the result of a deposit in the fibrous tissue surrounding joints; if a person is Scrofulous, these deposits often show themselves in small lumps under the chin and along the neck; if he has a Consumption or Chronic Cough, there is tuberculous matter deposited in the lungs; if Bronchitis, it takes place in the bronchial tubes; if Syphilis, it occurs in every tissue and organ of the system, for that disease spares nothing. Now, to cure these diseases, these chronic inflammations, (for it is this in every case,) it is manifest that the diseased deposits must be first removed, the remaining cause be taken away, and that the impure blood be altered in its condition and rendered pure and healthy.

It becomes necessary, then, that the absorbents be active and the blood be purified. We therefore want a medicine that will act on the absorbents and stimulate them into action, and that can at the same time purify the blood. Medicines that depend merely on purifying the blood alone will scarcely ever cure chronic disease. To cure chronic disease, they must at first have the power to stimulate the absorbents, and remove the diseased deposits. The action of the RESOLVENT is directed first to the absorbents, stimulating them into action and second to the blood which it depurates by its action over the glands, the liver, pancreas, kidneys, &c., which are the sewers that nature has established for purifying the blood. You will after this description, we hope, appreciate the name we have given to the second of the R. R. R. REMEDIES, OF RENOVATING RESOLVENT. It resolves only diseased deposits; it purifies the blood and it renovates the system. Tumors are removed and dissipated by its operation. Chronic Swellings are dissipated. Nodes are softened and melted away. The most loathsome Skin diseases disappear under its action. Scrofulous constitutions are soon amended, and the disease checked whenever it has attacked the system. Syphilis, with all its horrible train of consumption, too, often finds its master—Consumption, that prevalent and hard abiding disease of the lungs, that is so well known to you all, from its fatal and almost helpless character, and the havoc it produces among the young, the most gifted and the most beautiful of the human race, creeping over our vitals with unremitting yet awful certainty, and consigning to an early and premature grave its yearly hecatombs of victims. Tubercular Consumption is often regarded as a specific disease of the lungs alone. This is a mistake. It is but one of the forms of Scrofula—it is a Scrofulous disease, and an inflammation of the lung structure and could be as readily cured as any other scrofulous disease—such as Rickets, Hip Complaint or White Swelling—in which it takes place.

The lungs expand and contract during every respiration; and from the moment the first breath of life is drawn, until the last guttural sigh passes from the dying invalid's quivering lip, that action is kept up on their part. It will readily be conceived then how difficult it must be for an Ulcer of the lungs to heal where it is continually kept irritated by the act of breathing.

Understand then we do not offer you the RESOLVENT as to certain a cure for Consumption or Scrofula of the lungs, as it is for other Chronic diseases. We believe that it will cure Scrofula in any other part of the body but from the very nature of the case, the complaint—except in its first stages—is of times incurable, but we can recommend it as the most certain remedy (when taken as directed in our pamphlets) that we possess to arrest its progress, and can point to a large number of cases of Lung Diseases that it has cured.

Such then, is the RENOVATING RESOLVENT. What the Relief is to Acute disease the RESOLVENT is to Chronic; it resolves away the foreign and diseased deposits, it purifies the blood and it renovates the system.

NO. 3.

We now request the reader's attention to third of the R. R. R. REMEDIES.

RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

Every pill taker should examine the theory on which the REGULATORS are founded. Every one "who takes pills," will find RADWAY'S REGULATORS the most pleasant and safe Regulator of the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and other organs of the system now.

We have hitherto been treating of disease or inflammation in its acute or chronic state and its remedies; the RELIEF on one hand and the RESOLVENT on the other. We now pass to the consideration of that state of the system immediately preceding disease or inflammation, viz: Irritation. To allay irritation of the nervous system and remove its effects whenever it exists, and to aid the RELIEF or RESOLVENT in treatment of inflammation, are the chief purposes of the REGULATORS.

But how is this organization the cause to disease? Because the glands of the system are controlled by the brain and nervous centers, and what ever irritates the brain cause irregularities of the glands, and when the glands refuse to do their work, the foreign matter which it is their duty to remove, is left in the blood, and increases the already existing irritation. The glands are servants the system and are compose chiefly of the Liver the Kidneys the Pancreas, the Salivary Glands, and those of the skin and intestinal canal. Now, a regular and honest action of these organs are indispensable to keeping the blood in a pure and natural state. If we give you poison instead of food to eat you can easily understand that the blood will be corrupted by it, and disease action will follow, and it will be just as surely corrupted if the glands do not abstract the waste and improper materials from it.

Again it the kidneys be interfered with in their action, from any irritation whatsoever, why then we have the salts of the urine the poisonous uric circulating in the blood, producing headaches, consumption, &c.

And, last and most important of all, if any irritating causes interfere with the operation of that great lifestory the liver, behold the disastrous effect! The bile, instead of passing into the intestines to aid them in their movements, (for the bile is Nature's purgative) is left to ride fate in the blood, the bowels, therefore become inactive and the carbonization bile (for carbon or alcohol is the chief component of bile) circulating in the blood is the cause of the fever of the system. The superabundance of carbon in the blood meeting with the oxygen as it passes through the lungs is slowly consumed, and gives out a superabundance of heat, and this is fever.

RADWAY'S REGULATORS induce a healthy regularity of glandular action. No Costiveness, or Dyspepsia or Indigestion, or Pains in the Side or Liver Complaint or Pains in the Kidneys will trouble you if RADWAY'S REGULATORS are taken, and we positively assure all who are afflicted with these distressing complaints that RADWAY'S REGULATORS will cure them.

R. R. R. REMEDIES are suited to the treatment and cure of all, will cure most of the ills that flesh is heir to. The sanguinary practice of the lance, the cupping glass, and leeches, they entirely dispense with, and banish forever the pernicious use of that baneful drug, calomel.

If you be sick, we advise you to resort once to the R. R. R. REMEDIES, as the most prompt in their action, the most stable and effectual of remedies.

Instances of diseases prevented, of rapid cures, and almost miraculous recoveries we can furnish you the certificates and credentials without number.

But these may be obtained without merit as well as with it, and without knowing the circumstances, prove nothing to your mind.

The R. R. R. REMEDIES are for sale by druggists everywhere. Persons desirous of learning more of our REMEDIES are referred to our FAMILY FRIEND and monthly paper, a copy will be sent free of charge, to all who will send in their names and address.

REAL PREMIUM

DAGUERREOTYPES.

"Sweet copy, far more dear to me,
Lifeless, unfeeling as thou art,
Than all the living forms could be,
Save her who placed thee near my heart."

Mr. A. McDONALD returns his sincere thanks to the citizens of Fort Wayne and vicinity for their liberal patronage, and respectfully invites them to call, examine specimens of his pictures, and see the perfection to which the Daguerrean art has arrived.

His Pictures exhibited at the late State Fair, at Lafayette, were universally admitted to be far superior to any collection of pictures there, for which he was awarded a Premium and Diploma.

Those who want perfect copies of themselves or friends are respectfully invited to call and see the

Real Premium Pictures

(as those styled so only by the advertiser) at Mr. McDonald's Rooms, No. 3 Phenix Block, Calhoun street.

Instructions given in the Art, and Apparatus and Materials furnished on the lowest terms.

We, the undersigned, who attended the late State Fair at La Fayette, take pleasure in certifying that Mr. A. McDonald's Daguerreotypes were universally admitted (so far as we heard any expression) to be far superior to any exhibited at the Fair.

About Medicine.

SEEING the world is full of new Medicines, if any person would introduce still another, in the midst of confusion, what is to be done? There is nothing to be done, if the medicine is good, that we know of, only to write the truth about it, in plain language, and let the article stand on its own merits, by speaking for itself through its cures. Of the purely natural Remedy obtained from a Salt Well, 400 feet deep, in Pennsylvania,

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

We observe that as it cures various diseases, it will not do to class it among the humbugs,—although it is too much to say it will cure every body every time. Few, very few, however, among the multitudes now using it, are disappointed. Used as it is, both EXTERNALLY and INTERNALLY, it stands the greater chance of reaching the seat of disease. There are various kinds of old Petroleum—offensive to smell and taste. Many of the Liniments of the day (and some are very good) are compounded in part with some kind of Rock Oil. Hence it stands to reason that if a Petroleum can be had which can be swallowed it must be good, and thus, Kier's Oil, having that advantage, is the very essence and quintessence of medicine. It doctors the whole man, from head to foot—flesh and blood—skin and bones, and eradicates Disease and the cause of Disease—root and branch.

Justified in using this language, as the Proprietors are, from personal observation for the last two or three years, as well as from constantly accumulating testimony—Letters—Certificates—printed, and written, and verbal Statements—we do not feel at liberty to hold back the result from the people—it would not be right.

IF YOU OBJECT

that it is said to cure too many diseases to be good.—We reply—We cannot tell how it is, but so it is—that it cures so many diseases—and it is no affair of ours—it is the good fortune of the afflicted. We suppose it is just as easy for NATURE to make a Remedy for the whole man as part of a man—she never leaves her work half done. Another thing—we do not have as many diseases as we think. Take for instance

SCROFULA—or KINGS EVIL, and all those Diseases having their origin in a depraved condition of the blood, and other fluids of the body,—this Oil will eradicate them with little cost. And yet there are perhaps a dozen different manifestations of Scrofula, in the same or in different persons—and some people call them different diseases, which will never do. It was the opinion of the late Dr. Rush, Philadelphia, that there existed in Nature an antidote to every malady to which man is liable.

REFERENCES.

We add a few cures from the many certificates at hand:

RHEUMATISM.—G. M. Spencer, Three Rivers, Mich.; F. H. Bleecker, Cincinnati (both inflammatory); H. Folmer, Del. Co., Ind.; P. H. Millbank, 65 years old, Utica. Take teaspoonful 3 times a day and bathe.

COUGH.—Rev. B. Halsted, John Watt, W. Day (for breast and lungs), Pittsburgh. Teaspoonful 3 times a day.

SORE EYES.—J. G Fisher, La Grange Centre; J. M Mead, Mishawaka; S Nigh, Hagerstown. Apply 2 or 3 times a day, and if there is a scrofulous tendency, dose 3 times a day. Allow a little to get under the lid.

PILES.—K C Garretson, Cin; Mr. Shell, Allen Co., Ind., J M Marshall, Salisbury, and others.—use internally and externally.

DIARRHŒA.—J Donovan, Indianapolis, grandson, 2 years old, of diarrhea from his birth. H Wise, Pittsburgh, dose every three hours.

AGUE.—J G Jones, Terre Haute, Dec. 23, 1853—wife and 2 children cured of inveterate ague, and many others. Dose every 3 hours in absence of the fever.

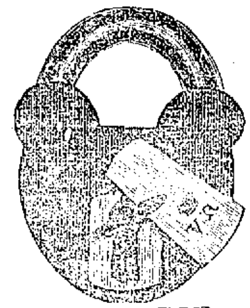

DOCTOR J. FLATERRY, Columbus, writes that in his practice KIER'S PETROLEUM has superceded the use of Cod Liver Oil for the Lungs, and he uses it exclusively for Diarrhea and Dysentery, Scrofulous Affections and Enlargements of the Spleen.

Proclamation to the Invalids of Syracuse.

$1,000 REWARD!

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains

ARE for the first time introduced to the people of Syracuse and vicinity, and the most convenient, efficient and strictly scientific mode of instantly relieving and permanently curing all

NERVOUS DISEASES.

Now we know that an announcement similar to the above meets the eye of the reader almost daily, and perhaps this may be classed with many others. But before you drop hypothesis, it is claimed that Pulvermacher's Electric Chain is the only magnetic remedial agent that is secured by patent granted by this government, on the ground that it was a strictly useful and scientific article. The Chains are now on exhibition at the Crystal Palace, and attract much attention from the thousands who daily visit it.

MODE OF USE.

The manner of using the Chains is very simple. The chain is first moistened with common vinegar, and then one end of the chain is applied to the part where the pain is located, and the other end opposite to the first. The ends of the chain should never touch each other. At the moment of application, the most acute pain is instantly relieved, wherever it is located, by the passing through the part a constant current of uninterrupted electro magnetism. In the following diseases, no other remedy has ever given such complete and perfect satisfaction to the patient as Pulvermacher's Electric Chains: Rheumatism, Painful and swelled Joints, Pains in the Back, Deafness, Blindness, Toothache, Neuralgia in the face, Long standing Nervous Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, General Debility, Dyspepsia, Female Diseases, Asthma, Contracted Joints, &c.

1000 DOLLARS

will be given to any patient who will produce as many well authenticated certificates of cure from intelligent patients and scientific physicians of the above diseases as has been witnessed by the use of the Electric Chain during the past year.

ANOTHER FACT.

It is truly the fact that wherever the electric chains have been introduced, bottled nostrums and common hot baths greatly diminished in sale, people having become disgusted with the practice of using their stomach for drug shops.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Electric Chains are highly recommended by Professors Mott, Van Buren, Post and Carnochan, of New York; are also in daily use in every Hospital in that city. The chains will last for years, are always ready for use, and produce no injurious results, when used as directed.

FEMALE DISEASES.

The introduction of the Electric Chain into this country is the dawn of a new era in medicine. During the last twenty years, it can safely be estimated that ten thousand females have died yearly from this one disease.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

It is well known to medical men that this common disease is beyond the reach of medicine, and that in proportion to the amount of medicine given, the more the patient is doomed to suffer, and sooner will death close the scene.

During the last 2 years more than one thousand cases of Prolapsus Uteri (falling of the womb) have been permanently cured in England and France. Most of these cases were ladies of high standing, who had previously tried all other kinds of treatment with no benefit. Among the distinguished ladies that have been cured in Paris is the present Queen of France. In this country, during the last year, one hundred cases have been cured in the city of New York, many who have allowed their names to be published for the benefit of those suffering with similar complaints. The mode of use is simply to apply one end of a 30 link chain to the spine just above the hips, and the other end upon the abdomen, and allow the chain to remain for one hour. This is to be repeated four times during the twenty-four hours.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

The Electric Chains never fail to relieve the severe pains and swelling incident to that disease. The worst forms of this disease readily yield to a few applications of a chain, and in no single instance have they failed to give instant relief, if they did not effect a permanent cure. All persons who are victims of this usual winter complaint, are kindly invited to call and obtain a pamphlet of Fenn & Farrington, agents for Syracuse, who will also explain their mode of use.

The electric chains can be sent by mail to any part of the United States, by addressing (post paid) any of the agents in the principal cities, or Joseph Steinert, 556 Broadway, New York.

CARD TO LADIES.

Ladies who are enceinte are requested not to wear them only for a few minutes at each application, for by long continued use miscarriage is frequently produced.

Composition Cement Roofing.

THE subscriber has made arrangements and procured the necessary materials for covering buildings with the popular Composition and Gravel Roofing. This system of Roofing has given universal satisfaction wherever it has been introduced, and is rapidly superceding all others. Its great advantages of durability, cheapness, tightness, and perfect safety from fire recommend it to all persons erecting good buildings. Though fully equal to tin in every respect, the cost is less than one half—but little more in fact than pine shingles.

PIANO FORTE WARE ROOM

C. L. HILL having opened rooms for the sale of

PIANO FORTES,

AND OTHER

Musical Instruments,

would say to the public that he is now receiving a fine stock of Boardman & Gray's celebrated Pianos, with and without the DOLCE CAMPANA ATTACHMENT.

This attachment combines more richness and beauty of tone than was ever before attained in the Piano Forte. Its particular qualities are clearness brilliancy and delicacy of tone, which falls upon the ear with a surpassing softness, like the chiming peals of distant bells.

Messrs. Boardman & Gray's Pianos, besides their other excellences, are warranted to be of great durability and wear longer than any others made.

He has also on hand a fine assortment of Melodeons, Guitars, Violins, Flutes, &c. Also Violin and Guitar Strings. In fact, almost every thing in the music line.

He is daily expecting a consignment of Stoddart's Superior Piano Fortes. Oct. 1st.

H. C. GREY & CO.

HAVING their TANNERY completed and in full operation, are now receiving at their store, corner of Columbia and Clinton streets, under the Telegraph office, a full assortment of which they offer for sale at reasonable prices.

Eastern and Imported Leather,

FINDINGS, SHOE THREADS, &c.,

As they give their exclusive attention to the leather and finding business, they hope to be able to give complete satisfaction. Country orders promptly filled. All articles ordered may be returned at our expense if not satisfactory.

HIDES wanted at the Highest Market Prices.

Piano Forte Warehouse.

At Manufacturer's Prices.

T. P. ANDERSON, agent for G. Gilbert, and Lemuel Gilbert, Piano Forte Manufacturers, of Boston, has a splendid collection of

Æolian and Boudoir Pianos

now on hand, at his room, in Hamilton's Block, over Taller's Shoe Store, to which he invites the attention of the public. The for compactness of form, beauty of style, delicacy of touch, power and quality of tone, surpass all others ever made in this country. Their peculiar form and construction render the tone so rich, varied and powerful, as entirely to preclude the possibility of being appreciated without being heard.

He is also agent for the sale of which for quality of Tone and Finish are universally admitted to be superior to anything of the kind ever before offered to the public.

All instruments sold by him are warranted.

Agricultural Implement Manufactory

corner of Caroline and Third St., BUFFALO, N. Y.

Pitt's Patent Separator,

IMPROVED DOUBLE PINION HORSE POWER,

Corn and Cob Mills, &c.

I HEREBY give notice that since the extension of the Patent Right on my machine for threshing and cleaning grain, I have removed to Buffalo, N. Y., where I have permanently located and erected a large establishment for the future manufacture of the above machines.

The Separator has been enlarged, improved and rendered more permanent and durable in all its parts, while the Horse Power, for strength, ease, durability and cheapness of repair, is not surpassed by any in the United States. This Power is warranted to stand the full strength of eight horses; also to give as much effective or useful power when driven by one or two horses as any other Horse Power, whether constructed on the endless chain or lever principle. It was put on trial at the great exhibition of Horse Powers and Threshing Machines at Geneva in July 1852, where it received the New York State Agricultural Society's first premium.

My machines will thresh and clean from three to five hundred bushels of wheat per day, and other grain in proportion. Two hundred of the above machines are for sale at the Agricultural works of the subscriber in this city, all warranted to be a better article than can be purchased at any other shop, and if they do not on trial prove to be so, I will take them off the hands of the purchasers at the price they may pay me for them.

I further notify all persons who are purchasing Horse Powers to be used in California and Oregon, that I will hold them accountable for any infringements to the rights secured to me by Letters patent to the above machines, as I am manufacturing a Horse Power and Separator expressly for that section.

All orders for the above machines, hereafter addressed to John A. Pitts, Buffalo, New York, will receive prompt attention. JOHN A. PITTS.
